

The background of the entire image is a faint, repeating pattern of the Stations of the Cross. This traditional Catholic sequence of 14 scenes depicting the final hours of Jesus' life is rendered in a light, sketchy style. The scenes are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some appearing in the upper half and others in the lower half of the image. The colors are muted, with a mix of light beige, cream, and soft pinkish-red tones. The overall effect is a subtle, textured backdrop for the text.
