Losing A Life A Daughters Memoir Of Caregiving:

Losing a Life Nancy Gerber, 2005-02-23 In this thought provoking memoir Nancy Gerber maps the wrenching terrain of caring for an elderly parent In the fall of 1995 at the age of 73 the author s father suffered a massive stroke on the right side of the brain rendering him permanently disabled This catastrophic event plunged the author and her family into a crisis for which they were completely unprepared one that included financial worries the need to hire full time live in help and the specter of putting her father into a nursing home Even more wrenching was the demise of the parent she had always known From an active gregarious man with hobbies and friends a man who had been working at the time of the stroke her father became withdrawn hostile and silent This profound loss was aggravated by the stress and anxiety that characterize family caregiving In honest evocative prose the author describes her struggle to negotiate the competing demands of love filial responsibility familial conflict and personal autonomy that arise when a parent becomes ill

Mothers of Adult Children

Marguerite Guzman Bouvard, 2013-09-12 Mothers of Adult Children elucidates what happens when children come of age and leave home creating new lives in the realms of work and relationships Mothers from around the world learn that this is the point in which their relationships with their children must drastically change Mothers often come to terms with the changes by accepting differences and providing moral and emotional support when needed However the evolutionary nature of mothers roles throughout the course of their children s lives is not only determined by the mother child dynamic The mothering of adult children is a transformative role and the stories presented here show that the dynamics between mother and child are also influenced by cultural events Accidents disasters war and other hardships also intervene in these stories of multicultural motherhood This book reveals the problems mothers of adult children face and celebrates the outstanding accomplishments of those who mother through hardship

Handbook of Long-Term Care Administration and Policy Cynthia

Massie Mara, Laura Olson, 2008-03-27 Attitudes toward long term care contain a strong residue of negativity in today s society and current problems with the system augment such perceptions Unless dealt with now this will only get worse as the 85 and older crowd is the fastest growing part of the population and the first wave of Baby Boomers is approaching 60

Thomas Couser,2021-04-13 Life writing in its various forms does work that other forms of expression do not it bears on the world in a way distinct from imaginative genres like fiction drama and poetry it acts in and on history in significant ways Memoirs of illness and disability often seek to depathologize the conditions that they recount Memoirs of parents by their children extend or alter relations forged initially face to face in the home At a time when memoir and other forms of life writing are being produced and consumed in unprecedented numbers this book reminds readers that memoir is not mainly a literary genre or mere entertainment Similarly letters are not merely epiphenomena of our real lives Correspondence does not just serve to communicate it enacts and sustains human relationships Memoir matters and there s life in letters All life writing arises of our daily lives and has distinctive impacts on them and the culture in which we live The Poetics and Politics of Alzheimer's Disease Life-Writing Martina Zimmermann,2017-06-07 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This is the first book length exploration of the thoughts and experiences expressed by dementia patients in published narratives over the last thirty years It contrasts third person caregiver and first person patient accounts from different languages and a range of media focusing on the poetical and political questions these narratives raise what images do narrators appropriate what narrative plot do they adapt and how do they draw on established strategies of life writing It also analyses how these accounts engage with the culturally dominant Alzheimer's narrative that centres on dependence and vulnerability and addresses how they relate to discourses of gender and aging Linking literary scholarship to the medico scientific understanding of dementia as a neurodegenerative condition this book argues that first patients articulations must be made central to dementia discourse and second committed alleviation of caregiver burden through social support systems and altered healthcare policies requires significantly altered views about aging dementia and Alzheimer's patients Inside the Dementia Epidemic Martha Stettinius, 2012 The unflinching and hopeful story of one woman's journey into family caregiving and a vivid overview of the challenges of Alzheimer's care With the passion of a committed daughter and the fervor of a tireless reporter Martha Stettinius weaves this compelling story of caregiving for her demented mother with a broad exploration of the causes of Alzheimer's disease means of treating it and hopes for preventing it She shares the lessons she's learned over seven years of caregiving at home in assisted living a rehabilitation center a memory care facility for people living with dementia and a nursing home lessons not just about how to navigate the system but how caregiving helped the author to grow closer to her mother and to learn to nurture her mother's spirit through the most advanced stages of dementia Caring for Children with Special Healthcare Needs and Their Families Linda L. Eddy, 2013-01-25 Caring for Children with Special Healthcare Needs and Their Families A Handbook for Healthcare Professionals provides a guide for addressing the challenges of providing optimal general and routine care for the special needs population More than just caring for the patients the text stresses the importance of caring for their families as well The book begins with chapters on common aspects of this population including physical or sensory disabilities and developmental and learning disabilities Subsequent chapters expound on more specific topics related to communication mobility emotional issues quality of life and end of life Caring for Children with Special Healthcare Needs and Their Families is a must have book for family and pediatric nurse practitioners registered nurses healthcare technicians physician assistants and social services professionals who see these patients regularly as part of their daily patient load The Reluctant Caregivers Anne Hendershott, 2000-03-30 Although Hendershott has spent many years teaching and writing about the sociological aspects of aging she writes that none of this could have prepared me for the overwhelming challenge of caring for my own mother in law in my home She introduces baby boomers as the unexpected caregivers of the coming decades The process of family denial about symptoms work family conflict and the unique problems of children of caregivers are explored in an effort to find solutions to the caregiving challenge Social science research is made accessible and is coupled with anecdotal information gleaned from interactions with other caregivers and personal experience Throughout the book Hendershott shows family caregivers that by gaining insight into their motivations for caregiving and by drawing from family support and help from the community they can move beyond maladaptive caregiving coping styles to a rewarding reality based caregiving experience The Spiritual Vixen's Guide To An Unapologetic Life Maureen Muldoon, 2025-07-30 This story begins with an ending the day Maureen Muldoon realized the devastating fact that her husband was having an affair and leaving her for Miss Universe Miss freaking Universe How does this even happen An intimate examination of Muldoon's unraveling in the face of this betrayal A Spiritual Vixen's Guide to An Unapologetic Life takes a fresh funny and fearless look at loss denial anger grace and liberation Muldoon reveals the strength that comes from facing one's fears the humor that arrives in the darkest hours and the miracles that happen when you least expect them in this grand tapestry of tales from the dark side Ultimately with wit and wisdom she walks herself out of hell in a pair of sexy stilettos and manages to do what the all the king's horses and all the king's men could not she puts herself back together And in doing so she comes to find more beauty and strength in the fractured places than anyone would have ever imagined
