Modern Art Leo Steinberg,2023-10-19 The fifth and final volume in the Essays by Leo Steinberg series focusing on modern artists Leo Steinberg was one of the most original art historians of the twentieth century known for taking interpretive risks that challenged the profession by overturning reigning orthodoxies In essays and lectures ranging from old masters to modern art he combined scholarly erudition with eloquent prose that illuminated his subject and a credo that privileged the visual evidence of the image over the literature written about it His writings sometimes provocative and controversial remain vital and influential reading Steinberg s perceptions evolved from long hard looking at his objects of study Almost everything he wrote included passages of formal analysis that were always put into the service of interpretation Following the series publication on Pablo Picasso this volume focuses on other modern artists including Cézanne Monet Matisse Max Ernst Jasper Johns Robert Rauschenberg Roy Lichtenstein Hans Haacke and Jeff Koons Included are seven unpublished lectures and essays Steinberg s landmark essay Encounters with Rauschenberg a survey of twentieth century sculpture and an examination of the role of authorial predilections in critical writing The final chapter presents a collection of Steinberg s humorous pieces witty forays penned for his own amusement

Modern Art is the fifth and final volume in a series that presents Steinberg's writings selected and edited by his longtime associate Sheila Schwartz. Art and the Home Imogen Racz, 2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us. They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy; they can be sites for developing rituals, family relationships, and acting out cultural expectations. Like the personal, social, and cultural elements out of which they are constructed, homes can be not only comforting but threatening too. The home is a rich theme running through post-war Western art, and it continues to engage contemporary artists today, yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing. Art and the Home: Comfort, Alienation, and the Everyday is the first single-authored, up-to-date book on the subject. Imogen Racz provides a theme-led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art, focusing mainly on sculpture, installation, and object-based practice, discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois, Gordon Matta-Clark, George Segal, and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts.

Concerning Consequences Kristine Stiles, 2016-03-21 Kristine Stiles has played a vital role in establishing trauma studies within the humanities. A formidable force in the art world, Stiles examines the significance of traumatic experiences both in the individual lives and works of artists and in contemporary international cultures since World War II. In Concerning Consequences, she considers some of the most notorious art of the second half of the twentieth century by artists who use their bodies to address destruction and violence. The essays in this book focus primarily on performance art and photography. From war and environmental pollution to racism and sexual assault, Stiles analyzes the consequences of trauma as seen in the works of artists like Marina Abramovic, Pope.L, and Chris Burden. Assembling rich intellectual explorations on everything from Paleolithic paintings to the Bible's patriarchal legacies to documentary images of nuclear explosions, Concerning Consequences explores how art can provide a distinctive means of understanding trauma and promote individual and collective healing.

Ben Shahn: An Artist's Life Howard Greenfeld, 2019-08-10 Ben Shahn was born in Lithuania in 1898 and emigrated to New York with his family in 1906. Trained as a lithographer, Shahn created social realist paintings of controversial subjects such as Sacco and Vanzetti. He worked as an assistant to Diego Rivera on Rivera's Rockefeller Center mural and later created his own public murals in Washington, New York, and New Jersey. In 1935, Walker Evans invited him to join the New Deal's Farm Security Administration. As a photographer, Shahn documented the Depression in the American South with Evans and Dorothea Lange. During the war years, he worked for the Office of War Information (OWI), producing propaganda posters before returning to painting. Toward the end of his life, he worked as a commercial artist, taught, and wrote about art, including The Biography of a Painting (1956) and The Shape of Content (1960). Howard Greenfeld's biography is the first complete life of the artist and is illustrated with 90 of his photographs, pictures, and paintings. Howard Greenfeld's approach scrupulously balances the personal and the political to provide a rounded portrait, giving a convincing sense of a determined individual making his mark.

Monochrome Craig Staff, 2015-09-17 The monochrome a single colour of paint applied over the entirety of a canvas remains one of the more contentious modernist artistic inventions But whilst the manufacture of these pictures of nothing was ostensibly straightforward their subsequent theorisation has been anything but More than a history Monochrome Darkness and Light in Contemporary Art is the first account of the monochrome s lively role in contemporary art Liberated from the burden of representation the monochrome first stood for emancipation an ideological and artistic impulse that characterised the avant garde of the early twentieth century Historically the monochrome embodied the most extreme form of abstraction and pure materiality Yet more recently adaptations of the art form have focused on a broader range of cultural and interpretive contexts Provocative innovative and timely this book argues that the latest artistic strategies go beyond stylistic concerns and instead seek to re engage with ideas around authorship process and the conditions of the visible as they are given and understood through both light and darkness Discussing works by artists such as Katie Paterson Hiroshi Sugimoto Tom Friedman Bruno Jakob Sherrie Levine and Ceal Floyer the book shows that the debates around an artwork s form and its possibility for meaning that the monochrome first engendered remain very much alive in contemporary visual culture
