Regional Science Perspectives In Economic Analysis A Festschrift In Memory Of Benjamin H Stevens:

Regional Science Perspectives in Economic Analysis M. L. Lahr, R. E. Miller, 2001-03-08 It is the intention of the editors to make available with this book a selection of current work in regional economics and regional science Great Minds in Regional Science, Vol. 3 Peter Batey, David Plane, 2025-07-31 This book is the third volume in a series on Great Minds in Regional Science which seeks to present a contemporary view on the scientific relevance of the work done by great thinkers in regional science This volume presents among others Walter Christaller Benjamin H Stevens William Alonso and François Perroux Each chapter combines factual biographical information about the Great Mind a description of their major contributions and a discussion of the broader context of their work as well as an assessment of its current relevance scientific recognition and policy impact The book attempts to fill a gap in our knowledge and to respond to the growing interest in the formation and development of the field of regional science and its key influential figures Economics of an Innovation

System Tsutomu Harada, 2019-03-04 Existing literature looks at national innovation systems from the perspective of either inside the black box or outside the black box This is the first book that analyzes both the inside and outside of the black box using a general equilibrium framework The book looks at what is outside the black box and provides models of path dependent endogenous growth examines the dynamics of the black box from the intersectoral perspective of the economy and proposes an innovation flow matrix It also takes into account both business cycles and endogenous innovation in the unified New Keynesian dynamic stochastic general equilibrium DSGE model and examines how business cycles and other policy shocks affect endogenous innovation The unified treatment of the national innovation system from perspectives both inside and outside the black box using rigorous economic models and empirical analyses makes this an enlightening work shedding new light on innovation economics East Asia's De Facto Economic Integration Daisuke

Hiratsuka, 2006-10-31 This book presents a deeper understanding of the on going de facto economic integration in East Asia looking at the extent of economic integration what sort of integration has been accomplished and comparing the level of integration reached and the path followed to that of the European Union Access to the Region's Core in Hudson

County, New Jersey and New York County, New York, 2008 Entrepreneurship and Dynamics in the Knowledge Economy Charlie Karlsson, Börje Johansson, Roger Stough, 2006-09-27 The phenomenon of entrepreneurship has attracted researchers from a variety of disciplines and a diverse number of analytical approaches Currently there is a considerable amount of confusion and a variety of conflicting theories which are being used interchangeably and ambiguously In this important new book the authors argue that there are analytically distinct forms of entrepreneurship each of them having an individual logic of their own They highlight the role of individual economic agents with endowments of new knowledge or new combinations of old knowledge as entrepreneurs and thus identify them as dynamic factors in the knowledge economy Overall this book not only provides a contemporary overview of current research in the field but also summarizes the policy
