Mission and Context Jione Havea, 2020-06-30 Mission is contrived from and performed over lived contexts but the visions that guide and drive mission are oftentimes blinded by power position protection and plenitude This collection visits those matters with queering attention to the shadows that empires cast over the contexts of mission and to the collusion and complicity of Christians and churches with empires past as in the case of Rome and present as in the case of the United States of America In the interests of those in mission fields who survived but continue to agonize under the burdens of empires the contributors to this work dare to re vision the course and cause of mission Writing from minoritized settings in Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania the authors interweave the principles and practices of mission with the opportunities in decolonial theology and hermeneutics minoritized and migrant Christologies repatriation and the courage to get up and get out indigenous insights and wisdom mission archives stories of resistance and endurance in zones of contact and violence restless souls and returning spirits and life centered spiritual en countering In Mission and Context as with previous volumes in this series empires do not have the final word nor are they the final world Pedagogies of the Global Arif Dirlik, 2015-12-03 The essays in this collection address questions raised by a modernity that has become global with the victory of capitalism over its competitors in the late twentieth century Rather than erase difference by converting all to European American norms of modernity capitalist modernity as it has gone global has empowered societies once condemned to imprisonment in premodernity or tradition to make their own claims on modernity on the basis of those very traditions as filtered through experiences of colonialism neocolonialism or simple marginalization by the forces of globalization Global modernity appears presently not as global homogeneity but as a site of conflict between forces of homogenization and heterogenization within and between nations Prominent in this context are conflicts over different ways of knowing and organizing the world The essays here dealing for the most part with education in the United States engage in critiques of hegemonic ways of knowing and critically evaluate counterhegemonic voices for change that are heard from a broad spectrum of social ethnic and indigenous perspectives Crucial to the essays critique of hegemony in contemporary pedagogy is an effort shared by the contributors distinguished scholars in their various fields to overcome area and or disciplinary boundaries and take the wholeness of everyday life as their point of departure

The Appeal of the Philippines José Miguel Díaz Rodríguez,2018-06-13 This book examines the different means through which Spain has revisited its ex colony the Philippines since 2000 Focusing on several major exhibitions organised in the period 1998 2017 the poetics narratives and meaning and politics institutional power of Spanish representations of the Philippines are critically examined Even though Spain s intention was to offer a fresh and updated look at the Philippines through the events organised there was also a tendency to refer to and recreate a colonial past posing important questions about the continuity of conceptions concerning the old Spanish Empire in the 21st Century Díaz Rodríguez further analyses Spanish cultural policy concerned with cultural promotion outside Spain and in particular in the Philippines He considers the Spanish official approach to cultural exchange in the Philippines and the consequences of particular intercultural events supported by Spanish institutions in the Philippines This is evidenced by unique data gathered from a number of interviews conducted by the author with Spanish and Filipino artists and cultural workers His conclusions contribute to the understanding of the transnational movement of culture including cultural representation arts funding and the links between politics and the arts

In Pursuit of Progress Hannah C. M. Bulloch, 2017-01-31 How are meta narratives of development entangled in people s identities and life trajectories How do they inhabit people s histories their understandings of their place in the world and their dreams for the future The idea of development has been deconstructed and scrutinized as a Western metaphor ordering global difference and as a banner under which diverse schemes for societal improvement find legitimacy and common purpose But how is development assimilated into the worldviews of development s subjects How does it reshape identities and in what ways is it reshaped in the process Drawing on a decade of ethnographic research on the Philippine island of Siquijor In Pursuit of Progress explores myths meanings and practices of development and its counterparts progress and modernization It does so not only by considering development as planned community wide interventions aimed at society wide improvements in living standards but by recognizing that as a cognitive tool for organizing relationships between people development is personal For Siquijodnon development or kalamboan is also a process of self transformation concerning changes in knowledge body roles and cultural orientation Emblems as diverse as skin color Christianity infant formula and infrastructure make statements about development on Siquijor Kalamboan is bound up with social mobility consumption and status but so too is it imbued with ideals of the simple life a life of austerity and attention to social relationships and with other assumptions about how people should live Author Hannah Bulloch analyzes development not only as a prescription for material aspiration but also for moral endeavor In Pursuit of Progress offers rich ethnographic insights into contemporary Visayan culture engaging with questions of enduring significance in Philippines studies including livelihood change colonial mentality everyday politics and moral economy It will contribute to debates in anthropology sociology and development studies regarding the ways in which discourses of development act upon local and global power relations

The Day the Dancers Stayed Theodore S. Gonzalves, 2009-09-25 Pilipino Cultural Nights at American campuses have been a rite of passage for youth culture and a source of local community pride since the 1980s Through performances and parodies of them these celebrations of national identity through music dance and theatrical narratives reemphasize what it means to be Filipino American In The Day the Dancers Stayed scholar and performer Theodore Gonzalves uses interviews and participant observer techniques to consider the relationship between the invention of performance repertoire and the development of diasporic identification Gonzalves traces a genealogy of performance repertoire from the 1930s to the present Culture nights serve several functions as exercises in nostalgia celebrations of rigid community entertainment and occasionally forums for political intervention Taking up more recent parodies of Pilipino Cultural Nights Gonzalves discusses how the rebellious spirit that enlivened the original seditious performances has been stifled

The Filipina-South Floridian Internet Marriage Practice Pamela S. Haley, 2013-07 This dissertation concerns the structures and individual agency of Filipina brides who met their American husbands through Internet or pen pal advertisements Popular media legal scholars and some feminists have largely described the phenomenon in terms of its oppressiveness toward the women involved thus dismissing any agency on the part of the women Similarly much of the scholarship has located the American Internet grooms as ogres who are out to exploit these women for domestic and sexual services If prominent researchers of this phenomenon are correct in their assessments that Filipina Internet brides operate as effective agents then one also assumes these women continue that agency when they settle into their new lives as Filipina wives married to American men Therefore my central research question is How has this agency manifested itself and has this manifestation been problematic for the American groom who from the typical Internet ad s text and images and coupled with prevailing American cultural assumptions assumed he was getting a submissive wife To explore possible answers to these questions I performed a rhetorical analysis of two typical Internet advertisements The focus on the ads is important to my study because the Internet advertisements both shape and reflect the popular view of the so called Filipina mail order bride Next in order to gain the Internet brides and grooms perspectives of the phenomenon I interviewed three Filipina Americano couples currently living in South Florida between November 2005 and October 2007 My findings support the scholars who forefront the brides agency and therefore reject the stereotypes projected on the Internet advertisements My findings also reject the stereotype of the exploitative husband From my interview data the women appeared agentive and the men encouraged their wives agency An unanticipated and paradoxical outcropping of the interviews was the participants descriptions of their courtship and subsequent marriages In this one area both the brides and grooms unanimously deemphasized their own agency and instead highlighted romantic narratives with each insisting that they had fallen in love
