Potocki,1950 The Cinema of Central Europe Peter Hames,2004 Analysis of 24 films including People of the mountains Ashes and diamonds Knife in the water A shop on the high street Closely observed trains Daisies Man of marble Colonel Redl The decalogue Dekalog Satantango The garden Alice directed by Jan Svankmajer The Cinema of Ra□l Ruiz Michael Goddard,2013-09-22 Ra l Ruiz while considered one of the world s most significant filmmakers by several film critics is yet to be the subject of any thorough engagement with his work in English This volume sets out on this task by mapping as fully as possible Ruiz s cinematic trajectory across more than five decades of prolific work up to his death in 2011 ranging from his earliest work in Chile to high budget European costume dramas culminating in Mysteries of Lisbon 2010 It does so by treating Ruiz s work with its surrealist magic realist popular cultural and neo Baroque sources as a type of impossible cinematic cartography mapping real imaginary and virtual spaces and crossing between different cultural contexts aesthetic strategies and technical media It argues that across the different phases of Ruiz s work identified there are key continuities such as the invention of singular cinematic images and the interrogation of their possible and impossible combinations The BFI Companion to Eastern European and Russian Cinema Richard Taylor,Nancy Wood,Julian Graffy,Dina Iordanova,2019-07-25 This work maps the rich varied cinema of Eastern Europe Russia and the former USSR Over 200 entries cover a variety of topics spanning a century of endeavour and turbulent history from Czech animation to Soviet montage from the silent cinemas dating back to World War I through to the varied responses to the conflicts in the former Yugoslavia It includes entries on actors and actresses film festivals studios genres directors film movements critics producers and technicians taking the coverage up to the late 1990s In addition to the historical material of key figures like Eisenstein and Wadja the editors provide separate accounts of the trajectory of the cinemas of Eastern Europe and of Russia in the wake of the collapse of communism Voices and Visions Kathleen McNerney,1999-05 The volume gives an excellent overall view of Rodoreda s poetry in the original and in translation her short stories and novels A completely annotated cross indexed bibliography of the critical work on Rodoreda accompanied by an analysis of the current state of criticism on her work is included A History of Polish Literature Anna Nasiłowska,2024-06-11 Anna Nasilowska s A History of Polish Literature is a one volume guide that immerses readers in the rich tapestry of Polish literature and reveals its enduring impact on European identity from the Middle Ages to the late twentieth century By exploring key themes writers and works and grounding her discussion in crucial biographical context she weaves together the lives of a carefully curated list of Polish writers to paint a vivid literary portrait elucidating the epochs that these writers shaped Offering indispensable insights for readers who may be unfamiliar with the world of Polish literature it is an excellent jumping off point for further study and learning Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg,2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today s global arena Gombrowicz, Polish Modernism, and the Subversion of Form Michael Goddard,2010 Gombrowicz Polish Modernism and the Subversion of Form provides a new and comprehensive account of the writing and thought of the Polish writer Witold Gombrowicz While Gombrowicz is probably the key Polish modernist writer with a stature in his native Poland equivalent to that of Joyce or Beckett in the English language he remains little known in English As well as providing a commentary on his novels plays and short stories this book sets Gombrowicz s writing in the context of contemporary cultural theory The author performs a detailed examination of Gombrowicz s major literary and theatrical work showing how his conception of form is highly resonant with contemporary postmodern theories of identity This book is the essential companion to one of Eastern Europe s most important literary figures whose work banned by the Nazis and suppressed by Poland s Communist government has only recently become well known in the West Empires of the Imagination Alec Worley,2021-01-05 The warlocks and ghosts of fantasy film haunt our popular culture but the genre has too long been ignored by critics This comprehensive critical survey of fantasy cinema demonstrates that the fantasy genre amounts to more than escapism Through a meticulously researched analysis of more than a century of fantasy pictures from the seminal work of Georges Melies to Peter Jackson s recent tours of Middle earth the work identifies narrative strategies and their recurring components and studies patterns of challenge and return setting and character First addressing the difficult task of defining the genre the work examines fantasy as a cultural force in both film and literature and explores its relation to science fiction horror and fairy tales Fantasy s development is traced from the first days of film with emphasis on how the evolving genre reflected such events as economic depression and war Also considered is fantasy s expression of politics as either the subject of satire or fuel for the fires of propaganda Discussion ventures into the subgenres from stories of invented lands inhabited by fantastic creatures to magical adventures set in the familiar world and addresses clashes between fantasy and faith such as the religious opposition to the Harry Potter phenomenon From the money making classics to little known arthouse films this richly illustrated work covers every aspect of fantasy film Andrzej Wajda Janina Falkowska,2007-12-01 The work of Andrzej Wajda one of the world s most important filmmakers shows remarkable cohesion in spite of the wide ranging scope of his films as this study of his complete output of feature films shows Not only do his films address crucial historical social and political issues the complexity of his work is reinforced by the incorporation of the elements of major film and art movements It is the reworking of these different elements by Wajda as the author shows which give his films their unique visual and aural qualities Surrealism, Cinema, and the Search for a New Myth Kristoffer Noheden,2017-06-28 This book examines post war surrealist cinema in relation to surrealism s change in direction towards myth and magic following World War II Intermedial and interdisciplinary the book unites cinema studies with art history and the study of Western esotericism closely engaging with a wide range of primary sources including surrealist journals art exhibitions and writings Kristoffer Noheden looks to the Danish surrealist artist Wilhelm Freddie s forays into the experimental short film the French poet Benjamin P ret s contribution to the documentary film L Invention du monde the Argentinean born filmmaker Nelly Kaplan s feature films and the Czech animator Jan Svankmajer s work in short and feature films The book traces a continuous engagement with myth and magic throughout these films uncovering a previously unknown strain of occult imagery in surrealist cinema It broadens the scope of the study of not only surrealist cinema but of surrealism across the art forms Surrealism Cinema and the Search for a New Myth will appeal to film scholars art historians and those interested in the impact of occultism on modern culture film and the arts Son of the 100 Best Movies You've Never Seen Richard Crouse,2008-09-01 Fans of offbeat cinema discriminating renters and collectors and movie buffs will drool over this checklist of the best overlooked and underappreciated films of the last hundred years In Son of the 100 Best Movies You ve Never Seen Richard Crouse Canada AM film critic and host of television s award winning Reel to Real presents a follow up to his 2003 book with another hundred of his favorite films Titles range from the obscure like 1912 s The Cameraman s Revenge to El Topo s unusual existential remake of the classic western and little seen classics like The Killing Each essay features a detailed description of plot notable trivia tidbits critical reviews and interviews with actors and filmmakers Featured interviews include Billy Bob Thornton on an inspirational movie about a man with his head in the clouds Francis Ford Coppola on One from the Heart and Mario Van Peebles on playing his own father in Badasssss Sidebars feature quirky details including legal disclaimers and memorable quotes along with movie picks from A list actors and directors Kubrick's Mitteleuropa Nathan Abrams,Jeremi Szaniawski,2024-10-01 Stanley Kubrick was arguably one of the most influential American directors of the post World War II era and his Central European Jewish heritage though often overlooked greatly influenced his oeuvre Kubrick s Mitteleuropa explores this influence in ways that range from his work with Hungarian and Polish composers Bela Bartok Gy rgy Ligeti and Krzysztof Penderecki to the visual inspiration of artists such as Egon Schiele
