Parenting with Heart Stephen James, Chip Dodd, 2018-10-16 Parents want to be the best person they can for their children but much of the time they may feel like giraffes on ice clumsy unprepared and in imminent danger of going down The good news is our children don t need perfect parents They need authentic fully hearted relationally engaged parents who can mess up and move on more than parents who always get it right In this freeing book respected therapists and bestselling authors Stephen James and Chip Dodd invite parents to let go of perfectionism and micromanaging as they learn to parent from a place of emotional honesty and intimacy Through their clinical experience and relatable true stories they show parents that raising children to become capable loving and wise hearted adults is far more about accepting our flaws than projecting an impossible standard to our children that we already know we can't live up to. Parents will learn how to resolve issues from their own childhoods, tune into their feelings and the emotions of their children and be present with their families through both the best and worst of circumstances. The Quick-Reference Guide to Sexuality & Relationship Counseling Dr. Tim Clinton, Timothy E. Clinton, Dr. Mark Laaser, Mark R. Laaser, 2010-04. This A-Z guide assists people, helpers, pastors, professional counselors, youth workers, and everyday believers to easily access a full array of information to aid them in formal and informal counseling situations. New Perspectives on Domestic Violence: From Research to Intervention Luca Rollè, Shulamit Ramon, Piera Brustia, 2019-06-19. How to Raise a Drug-Free Kid Joseph A. Califano, 2014-09-09. The highly acclaimed comprehensive guide to getting your child through the formative pre-teen, teen, and college years drug-free, now completely revised and updated. Nearly every child will be offered drugs or alcohol before graduating high school, and excessive drinking is common at most colleges. But the good news is that a child who gets to age twenty-one without smoking, using illegal drugs, or abusing alcohol or prescription drugs is virtually certain never to do so. Drawing on more than two decades of research at The National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse at Columbia University, CASAColumbia founder Joseph A. Califano Jr. presents a clear common-sense guide to helping kids stay drug-free. All parents dream of a healthy, productive, and fulfilling future for their children. Califano shows which specific actions work and what parents can do to teach, protect, and empower their children to have the greatest chance of making that future come true. Teenagers who learn about the risks of drugs from their parents are twice as likely never to try them, and this book provides the tools parents need to prepare their children for those crucial decision-making moments. In this revised and updated edition, Califano tackles some of the newest obstacles standing between our kids and a drug-free life: from social media sites and cell phone apps to the explosion in prescription and over-the-counter drug abuse and the increased dangers and addictive power of marijuana. He reveals what teens can't or won't tell their parents about their thoughts on drugs and alcohol and combines the latest research with his discussions with thousands of parents and teens about the challenges that widespread access to drugs and alcohol present and how parents can instill in their teens the will and skills to choose not to use. Califano's insightful and lively guide is as readable as it is informative. Counseling and Psychotherapy Theories in Context and Practice John Sommers-Flanagan, Rita Sommers-Flanagan, 2018-05-22.
