Relationships The Gifts Of Life:

Love: the Most Precious Gift of Life Pejman Aghasi, 2007-08 Love is the only hope It is only because of love that man finds it possible to reach god If there were no love there would be no religion no prayer If there were no love there would be no creativity no music no dance no art no poetry If there were no love there would be no beauty no friendship no happiness no intimacy All that is valuable in life comes through love Love is the source of all that is nourishing and fulfilling Love is the only heavenly phenomenon on this earth Everything else is earthly therefore it is only through love that one can reach to god and heavenly states of being Without love life becomes dull repetitive and unfulfilling Love The Most Precious Gift of Life shows us that we must live with love because that is the only way to really live The deeper and realer your love is the deeper and more meaningful your life is We must think of love and life as being the same and synonymous If love has so many blessings why do many couples struggle and face so many difficulties in their relationships In the second part of Love The Most Precious Gift of Life the root social and psychological causes of these conflicts are uncovered and a solution for solving each problem is also presented And in doing so it helps us to keep our relationships healthy and intimate and enable us to embrace love and through love reach to our highest potential which is self realization and enlightenment The gift of life

J.M. Vorster, 2021 The concept human life and what it entails have become a prominent idea in current theological ethical discourses especially in the growing Christian reflection on bioethics eco ethics and social justice Contemporary Christian ethicists focus on concepts such as flourishing life happiness and joy and how these deep human desires can be realised and fulfilled in life today amidst perennial surges of racism xenophobia sexism systemic violence and policies and structures which further poverty and other forms of social injustices Christian soteriology and subsequent moral agency grapples with the question How can humans flourish in societies today and how should Christian morality be defined and designed to be instrumental in the current pursuit of happiness joy and hope This publication aims to participate in this modern day discourse by proposing relevant theological perspectives on the concept of life and in particular its relevance for Christians living in this age and in an environment that poses major challenges to public morality and the common good In conjunction with the emerging theological interest in the concept of life this project is a modest attempt to take part in the advancement of an ethic of life for today under the rubric of an ethic of flourishing personhood The point of departure is the biblical concept of the gift of life and what this gift entails for understanding human life personhood and moral agency today The line of reasoning in this book delineates the broad concept ethic of life and the biblical concept gift of life and draws the line towards an ethic of flourishing personhood The central theoretical argument of the study is that reformed theology can give direction to the contemporary theological search for meaning and purpose of human life and offer answers to the questions on life facing humanity today especially by pursuing the idea of flourishing personhood Gift of Life Roberta G.

technologies Organ Transplantation Gift of Life covers those aspects that have general implications for public policy and sociological theory and describes the social psychological impact of kidney transplantation itself Gift of Life begins with an examination of the overall unresolved ethical issues related to kidney transplantation the problem of selecting patients for a scarce therapy the problem of withholding treatment from patients of greater physical and psychological risk the issue of utilizing living related kidney donors vs cadaver donors The book concentrates on organ donors and their families and studies the effect of this type of extreme altruism It also examines the stress for the family as the members try to decide who if anyone will give a kidney The work shows how individuals and families make major decisions under stress Discussed in detail are family communication processes and emotional relationships between donor and recipient as well as the impact of donation upon the family of the cadaver donor The final analysis deals with the health care delivery issues and the questions of funding created by the rapid rise of this new technology Gift of Life with its exposition of decision making communication and reaction to stress is of relevance to social science theory and policy

"Relationships" Vincent DiPasquale, 1999-06-01 Living in Love and Faith The Church of England, 2020-11-09 Issues of gender and sexuality are intrinsic to people's experience their sense of identity their lives and the loving relationships that shape and sustain them The life and mission of the Church of England and of the worldwide Anglican Communion are affected by the deep and sometimes painful disagreements about these matters divisions brought into sharper focus because of society's changing perspectives and practices especially in relation to LGBTBI people Living in Love and Faith sets out to inspire people to think more deeply both about what it means to be human and to live in love and faith with one another It tackles the tough questions and the divisions among Christians about what it means to be holy in a society in which understandings and practices of gender sexuality and marriage continue to change Commissioned and led by the Bishops of the Church of England the Living in Love and Faith project has involved many people across the Church and beyond bringing together a great diversity and depth of expertise conviction and experience to explore these matters by studying what the Bible theology history and the social and biological sciences have to say After a Foreword from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York the book opens with an invitation from the Bishops of the Church of England to embark on a learning journey in five parts Part One sets current questions about human identity sexuality relationships and marriage in the context of God's gift of life Part Two takes a careful and dispassionate look at what is happening in the world with regard to identity sexuality relationships and marriage Part Three explores current Christian thinking and discussions about human identity sexuality and marriage In the light of the good news of Jesus Christ how do Christians understand and respond to the trends observed in Part Two Part Four considers what it means for us as individuals and as a church to be Christ like when it comes to matters of identity sexuality relationships and marriage Part Five invites the reader into a conversation between some of the people who have been involved in writing this book who having engaged with and written Parts One to Four nevertheless come to different conclusions Amid the biblical theological historical and scientific exploration each part includes Encounters with real contemporary disciples of Christ whose stories raise questions which ask us to discern where God is active in human lives The book ends with an appeal from the Bishops to join them in a period of discernment and decision making following the publication of Living in Love and Faith The Living in Love and Faith book is accompanied by a range of free digital resources including films podcasts and an online library together with Living in Love and Faith The Course a 5 session course which is designed to help local groups engage with the resources also published by Church House Publishing

The Gift of the Self Matthew Harp, 2021-08-25 A preliminary cruciform theology using the metaphor of a gift as its thematic principle this book is intended to articulate a foundation for a Christian theology centered around the concept of God's Way of self gift Using the Cross of Christ as a starting point for a doctrine of God The Gift of the Self utilizes insights from biblical studies the sciences and Open and Relational Theology to construct a Christian framework that is compatible with the life and death of Jesus Christ as fully revelatory of God's Personhood This book engages issues of systematic theology metaphysics and ethics in hopes to deconstruct and reconstruct a conceptualization of God's character and power that is most consistent with the Cross as well as a vision for the vocation of the community of faith Finally a seven day liturgy thematized around generosity and the book's primary topics is included so that the reader might become more spiritually formed around this fresh contextualization of the ancient Christian faith As such the underlying purpose of The Gift of the Self is to construct a plausible Christian worldview for a post Christian context rooted totally in the Way of Christ as an alternative to some of the dominant forms of historic Christianity that do not take seriously the Cross's critique of unilateral power and communal exclusivity The author intends that embracing this worldview oriented by self gift can help transform the Church from a power seeking organization to a peace seeking community

Pilgrimage of Love Joy Ann McDougall, 2005-10-13 In Pilgrimage of Love Joy Ann McDougall offers an original reading and critical analysis of German Protestant theologian Jürgen Moltmann's social trinitarian theology She identifies the driving theological impulses methodological convictions and practical concerns that shape the author's evolving trinitarian vision She uncovers the narrative of divine love in Moltmann's early trilogy and shows how its conceptual trajectory shifts and deepens in his six volume Systematic Contributions to Theology Building on her analysis McDougall advances a compelling case for the concept of trinitarian fellowship as the structuring theological principle in Moltmann's later work She demonstrates how this concept of divine love unifies the author's theological anthropology theology of grace and the practices of the life of faith Finally she shows how this social trinitarian analogy of fellowship serves as an elastic rule of faith in the personal political and ecclesial realms of human existence While McDougall highlights the prophetic potential of Moltmann's trinitarian theology for Christian praxis she also challenges the author's underdeveloped doctrine of sin and theory of theological language Pilgrimage of Love offers one of the first comprehensive interpretations of Moltmann's mature trinitarian theology It introduces systematizes and clarifies the thought of one of the most significant Protestant theologians at the turn of the twenty first century This study will be an invaluable resource on Moltmann's thought for scholars of modern Protestant theology and for all those interested in the current renaissance of trinitarian theology

Embracing the Gift of Parenthood Elizabeth Marie Galloway-Evans, 2009-04-08 This book concentrates on the relationship between parents and their children It brings to light what children are asking parents to be for them in their lives As parents we feel that we are the ones that have expectations and dreams for our children when in reality the expectations that children have of us are far more explicit and expansive than what we ask of them The funny thing about this is that if we meet their expectations of who it is that we need to be in their lives they will exceed our dreams of what we want for them in their lives
