Relativism Interpretation And Confrontation:

Relativism Michael Krausz, 1989 Recent years have seen a vigorous revival of interest in relativism both in support and in opposition This collection of 21 essays 16 of which appear in print here for the first time advances the discussion found in an earlier volume Relativism Cognitive and Moral These present selections focus on philosophical and methodological issues of relativism by exhibiting its varieties and by rehearsing its virtues and vices The contributions concern relativism in a wide range of practices in the human studies

Practical Identity and Narrative Agency Kim Atkins, Catriona Mackenzie, 2010-06-07 The essays collected in this volume address a range of issues that arise when the focus of philosophical reflection on identity is shifted from metaphysical to practical and evaluative concerns They also explore the usefulness of the notion of narrative for articulating and responding to these issues The chapters written by an outstanding roster of international scholars address a range of complex philosophical issues concerning the relationship between practical and metaphysical identity the embodied dimensions of the first personal perspective the kind of reflexive agency involved in the self constitution of one's practical identity the relationship between practical identity and normativity and the temporal dimensions of identity and selfhood In addressing these issues contributors engage with debates in the literatures on personal identity phenomenology moral psychology action theory normative ethical theory and feminist philosophy

Limits of Rightness Michael Krausz, 2000 SCOTT copy 1 From the John Holmes Library collection

Rhetoric and Philosophy Richard A. Cherwitz, Henry W. Johnstone Jr., 2014-06-03 This important volume explores alternative ways in which those involved in the field of speech communication have attempted to find a philosophical grounding for rhetoric Recognizing that rhetoric can be supported in a wide variety of ways this text examines eight different philosophies of rhetoric realism relativism rationalism idealism materialism existentialism deconstructionism and pragmatism The value of this book lies in its pluralistic and comparative approach to rhetorical theory Although rhetoric may be the more difficult road to philosophy the fact that it is being traversed by a group of authors largely from speech communication demonstrates important growth in this field Ultimately there is recognition that if different thinkers can have solid reasons to adhere to disparate philosophies serious communication problems can be eliminated Rhetoric and Philosophy will assist scholars in choosing from among the many philosophical starting places for rhetoric

Hermeneutics at the Crossroads Kevin J. Vanhoozer, James K. A. Smith, Bruce Ellis Benson, 2006-06-15 In this multi faceted volume Christian and other religiously committed theorists find themselves at an uneasy point in history between premodernity modernity and postmodernity where disciplines and methods cultural and linguistic traditions and religious commitments tangle and cross Here leading theorists explore the state of the art of the contemporary hermeneutical terrain As they address the work of Gadamer Ricoeur and Derrida the essays collected in this wide ranging work engage key themes in philosophical hermeneutics hermeneutics and religion hermeneutics and the other arts hermeneutics and literature and hermeneutics and ethics Readers will find lively exchanges and reflections that meet the intellectual and philosophical challenges posed by hermeneutics at the crossroads Contributors are Bruce Ellis Benson Christina Bieber Lake John D Caputo Eduardo J Echeverria Benne Faber Norman Lillegard Roger Lundin Brian McCrea James K A Smith Michael VanderWeele Kevin Vanhoozer and Nicholas Wolterstorff

Radical Interpretation in Religion Nancy Frankenberry, 2002-09-19 Publisher Description Hegel's Idea of a Phenomenology of Spirit Michael N. Forster, 1998-05-13 Forster's reading reveals the Phenomenology of Spirit as in fact an impressively coherent text containing a rich array of ideas of extraordinary philosophical originality and depth A Companion to Epistemology Jonathan Dancy, Ernest Sosa, Matthias Steup, 2010-02-15 With nearly 300 entries on key concepts review essays on central issues and self profiles by leading scholars this companion is the most comprehensive and up to date single volume reference guide to epistemology Epistemology from A Z is comprised of 296 articles on important epistemological concepts that have been extensively revised to bring the volume up to date with many new and re written entries reflecting developments in the field Includes 20 new self profiles by leading epistemologists Contains 10 new review essays on central issues of epistemology Sexuality and Equality Law Suzanne B. Goldberg, 2017-07-05 Sexual rules and regulations are among society's oldest yet it is only in recent decades that this once stigmatized field has become the focus of scholarly attention This volume which includes some of the most thought provoking and hard to find essays in the field covers a diverse range of topics from sexual orientation and gender identity to intersexuality and commercial sex and from HIV AIDS and trafficking to polygamy Through historical political and critical theoretical lenses and through a global focus the selections ask how we conceptualize the groups and acts subjected to sexual regulation and how regulations in the field implicate and produce understandings of sexuality and identity By placing this variety of works together Sexuality and Equality Law invites fresh insights into commonalities and synergies across regulatory arenas that are often isolated from one another The volume's introduction situates all of these works in the broader field and offers readers an extensive bibliography Protection of Sexual Minorities since Stonewall Phil C.W. Chan, 2013-09-13 The Stonewall Riot in New York in 1969 marked the birth of the sexual minority rights movement worldwide In the subsequent four decades equality and related rights on grounds of sexual orientation and gender identity have been enshrined in many African Asian Australasian European and North American countries thanks to better informed discourses of the natures of sexual orientation gender identity equality and rights that systematic scientific and socio legal research has generated Discrimination harassment and persecution on grounds of a person's sexual orientation or gender identity however continue to pervade the laws and social norms in all developed and developing countries In tribute to the courage of those who participated in the Stonewall Riot this book examines the progress and stalemate in various countries on five continents as well as in the development of international law concerning the rights of persons belonging to sexual minorities This book covers issues including homophobic bullying and gay straight alliances in schools the merits and problems that legislation prohibiting hate speech on grounds of sexual orientation presents criminal justice systems in relation to male rape victims and to criminalisation of HIV exposure and transmission the development of sexual minority rights from historical and socio legal perspectives in Hong Kong Japan Singapore and Zimbabwe the lives of transgender persons in Asian countries the evolution operation and impact of international and domestic refugee laws on sexual orientation and gender identity as grounds for refugee status and asylum and the conflicts between law religion and sexual minority equality rights that inhere in the same sex marriage debate in Ireland This book was previously published as a special double issue of The International Journal of Human Rights

Making Comparisons Count Ruth Chang, 2014-01-21 This book attempts to answer two questions Are alternatives for choice ever incomparable and In what ways can items be compared The arguments offered suggest that alternatives for choice no matter how different are never incomparable and that the ways in which items can be compared are richer and more varied than commonly supposed

Making the Law Explicit Matthias Klatt, 2008-09-08 Legal argumentation consists in the interpretation of texts Therefore it has a natural connection to the philosophy of language Central issues of this connection however lack a clear answer For instance how much freedom do judges have in applying the law How are the literal and the purposive approaches related to one another How can we distinguish between applying the law and making the law This book provides answers by means of a complex and detailed theory of literal meaning A new legal method is introduced namely the further development of the law It is so far unknown in Anglo American jurisprudence but it is shown that this new method helps in solving some of the most crucial puzzles in jurisprudence At its centre the book addresses legal indeterminism and refutes linguistic philosophical reasons for indeterminacy It spells out the normative character of interpretation as emphasized by Raz and with the help of Robert Brandom s normative pragmatics it is shown that the relativism of interpretation from a normative perspective does not at all justify scepticism On the contrary it supports the claim that legal argumentation can be objective and maintains that statements on the meaning of a statute can be right or wrong and take on inter subjective validity accordingly This book breaks new ground in transferring Brandom s philosophy to legal theoretical problems and presents an original and exciting analysis of the semantic argument in legal argumentation It was the recipient of the European Award for Legal Theory in 2002 This book represents on the one hand a reception of Robert Brandom s important theory including applications of this theory in the field of legal philosophy and on the other an exploration of the limits of an appeal in legal interpretation to the text The enquiry thereby impinges upon the central juridico philosophical themes of meaning objectivity and normativity The author s work counts as a significant contribution to analytical jurisprudence and is deserving of a wide readership Robert Alexy Professor for Public Law and Legal Philosophy Kiel Klatt focuses on a very profound theory of concept formation and uses this theory in a creative way to solve classical problems of legal argumentation Aleksander Peczenik

The Future of History Alun Munslow,2010-07-30 In this radical reassessment Alun Munslow challenges conventional notions of history and offers a new vision of historical thinking and practice Deploying a range of concepts such as scepticism aesthetics ethics standpoint irony authorship and a new understanding of truth The Future of History examines history as a form of knowledge in itself arguing that in the future the multiple forms of its expression will be as significant as its content This thought provoking challenging and unique book offers a way forward for history after postmodernism and is essential reading for anyone asking the question what is history Ethics: The Basics, 2nd Edition John Mizzoni,2017-03-27

Updated and revised Ethics The Basics Second Edition introduces students to fundamental ethical concepts principles theories and traditions while providing them with the conceptual tools necessary to think critically about ethical issues Introduces students to core philosophical problems in ethics in a uniquely reader friendly manner Lays out clearly and simply a rich collection of ethical concepts principles theories and traditions that are prevalent in today s society Considers western and non western viewpoints and religious interpretations of ethical principles Offers a framework for students to think about and navigate through an array of philosophical questions about ethics Moral Disagreements Christopher W. Gowans,2013-04-03 Can moral disagreements be rationally resolved Can universal human rights be defended in face of moral disagreements The problem of moral disagreement is one of the central problems in moral thinking It also provides a stimulating stepping stone to some of the perennial problems of philosophy such as relativism scepticism and objectivity

Moral Disagreements is the first anthology to bring together classic and contemporary readings on this key topic. Clearly divided into five parts: The Historical Debate, Voices from Anthropology, Challenges to Moral Objectivity, Defenses of Moral Objectivity, and New Directions, the anthology presents readings from the following key thinkers: Sextus Empiricus, Chagnon, Wong, MacIntyre, Aquinas, Shweder, Brink, Rawls, Montaigne, Turner, Nussbaum, Narayan, Hume, Mackie, Gewirth, Nietzsche, Williams, Berlin. A distinctive feature of the anthology is that it brings philosophers into dialogue with well-known anthropologists. Also included is a comprehensive introduction by Christopher Gowans introducing the problem of moral disagreement to those coming to the topic for the first time.
