Religion And Nationalism In Soviet And East European Politics:

Religion and Nationalism in Soviet and East European Politics Sabrina P. Ramet, 1989 Religious organizations in many countries of the communist world have served as agents for the preservation defense and reinforcement of nationalist feelings and in playing this role have frequently been a source of frustration to the Communist Party elites Although the relationship between governments and religious groups varies according to the particular country and group in question the mosaic of these relationships constitutes a revealing picture of the political reform shaping the lives of Soviet and East European citizens

East European Nationalism, Politics and Religion Peter F. Sugar, 1999 The multi national region of Europe situated between the German speaking lands and those of the former Soviet Union has witnessed various forms of nationalism over the last 200 years This book seeks to explain these Eastern European nationalisms

East European Nationalism, Politics and Religion Peter F. Sugar, 2024-10-28 The multi national region of Europe situated between the German speaking lands and those of the former Soviet Union has witnessed many varied manifestations of nationalism over the last two centuries Professor Sugar has been in the forefront of those seeking to understand and explain these Eastern European nationalisms and eleven of his essays on the subject are included in this second selection of his studies The first two essays deal with problems of ethnicity and its specific manifestations in the region the next three present the growth of national antagonisms during the 19th century The third and longest section then sets out to examine the interaction of fully developed nationalism in Eastern Europe with the various political movements and religious organizations that impacted upon these lands

Ethnic Politics in Eastern Europe: A Guide to Nationality Policies, Organizations and Parties Janusz Bugajski, 2016-09-16 This guide charts national histories and policies relevant statistics and chronologies and the identities programmes and activities of the full spectrum of ethnically based parties and organizations in Central and Eastern Europe

Ethnic Politics in Eastern Europe Janusz Bugajski, 1994 This guide charts national histories and policies relevant statistics and chronologies and the identities programmes and activities of the full spectrum of ethnically based parties and organizations in Central and Eastern Europe

The formation of Croatian national identity Alex Bellamy, 2013-07-19 This book assesses the formation of Croatian national identity in the 1990s It develops a novel framework calling into question both primordial and modernist approaches to nationalism and national identity before applying that framework to Croatia In doing so the book provides a new way of thinking about how national identity is formed and why it is so important An explanation is given of how Croatian national identity was formed in the abstract via a historical narrative that traces centuries of yearning for a national state The book shows how the government opposition parties dissident intellectuals and diaspora groups offered alternative accounts of this narrative in order to legitimise contemporary political programmes based on different versions of national identity It then looks at how these debates were manifested in social activities as diverse as football religion economics and language This book attempts to make an important contribution to both the way we study nationalism and national identity and our understanding of post Yugoslav politics and society An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence Problems of Communism ,1984

Church, State, and Democracy in Expanding Europe Lavinia Stan,Lucian Turcescu,2011-09-22 Lavinia Stan and Lucian Turcescu examine the relationship between religion and politics in ten former communist Eastern European countries showing church state relations in the new EU member states through study of political representation for church leaders governmental subsidies registration of religions by the state and religious instruction in public schools Art, Religion and Resistance in (Post-)Communist Romania Maria Alina Asavei,2020-10-22 This book illuminates the interconnections between politics and religion through the lens of artistic production exploring how art inspired by religion functioned as a form of resistance directed against both Romanian national communism 1960 1989 and latterly consumerist society and its global market It investigates the critical tactical and subversive employments of religious motifs and themes in contemporary art pieces that confront the religious affair in post communist Romania In doing so it addresses a key gap in previous scholarship which has paid little attention to the relationship between religious art and political resistance in communist Central and South East Europe Historical Dictionary of Georgia Alexander Mikaberidze,2015-02-06 Situated in the breathtaking Caucasus Mountains between the Black and the Caspian Seas the country of Georgia sits at the crossroads between Europe and Asia it has gone through more turbulence and change in the last twenty five years the casting off of the Soviet regime a civil war two ethno territorial conflicts economic collapse corruption government inefficiency and massive emigration than most countries go through in 250 years This small nation s strategic location at the crossroads of different civilizations has been a curse as well as a blessing Once a battlefield between the ancient empires and the Christian and Islamic worlds today it is caught between its NATO aspirations and its location in Russia s backyard Yet despite all challenges and hardships this resilient and ancient country with thousands of years of winemaking three thousand years of statehood and almost two millennia of Christianity continues to survive and thrive Historical Dictionary of Georgia Second Edition through its chronology glossary introduction appendixes maps bibliography and over 900 hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places events and institutions and significant political economic social and cultural aspects traces Georgia s history and provides a compass for the direction the country is heading This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Georgia Governing Religious Diversity in Global Comparative Perspective Tariq Modood,Thomas Sealy,2023-09-06 This book presents comparative analyses of different modes of the governance of religious diversity and state religion connections and relations in twenty three countries in five world regions Western Europe Southern and South Eastern Europe Central and Eastern Europe the MENA region and South and Southeast Asia Debates and controversies around the governance of religious diversity have become important features of the social and political landscape in different regions and countries across the world The historical influences and legacies and the contemporary circumstances provoking these debates vary between contexts and there have been a range of state and scholarly responses to how and why particular understandings and arrangements of state religion relations should be preferred over others The analyses of country cases and regions presented in this volume are based on extensive reviews of secondary literature of legal and policy landscapes and in some cases on interviews This book will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students interested in in the sociology of religion religious studies politics and migration studies The contributions in this volume arise out of the Horizon2020 funded GREASE project It was originally published as a special issue of Religion State and Society The Formation of the Uzbek

Geographies of Muslim Identities Peter Hopkins,2016-04-15 In recent years geographies of identities including those of ethnicity religion race and gender have formed an increasing focus of contemporary human geography The events of September 11th 2001 particularly illustrated the ways in which identities can be transformed across time and space by both global and local events of a social cultural political and economic nature Such transformations have also demonstrated the temporal and spatial construction of hate and fear and of increasing incidences of Islamophobia through the construction of Muslims as the Other As the social scientific study of religion continues to be marginalized within mainstream scholarship there remains an important gap in the literature This timely book addresses this gap by collecting a range of cutting edge contributions from the social cultural political historical and economic sub disciplines of geography together with writings from gender studies cultural studies and leisure studies where research has revealed a strong spatial dimension to the construction representation contestation and reworking of Muslim identities The contributors illustrate the ways in which such identities are constructed represented negotiated and contested in everyday life in a wide variety of international contexts focusing upon issues connected with diaspora gender and belonging Southeast European Security Albrecht Schnabel,2001 Contents Southeastern Europe the unlikely security community Environmental security in Southeastern Europe a basis for regional co operation Russian in the Transcaucasus and Kosovo from insecurity to security provider Churches and in security providers in Southeastern Europe Bulgaria and the disintegration of Yugoslavia between ethnic affinity and international commitment regional implications of a failed transition to democracy the case of Serbia The internationalisation of conflict in the Transcaucasus and the former Yugoslavia The OSCE security model for the Balkans a viable model for the 21st century Lessons from UN Peacekeeping in Cyprus Srebrenica The failure and future of safe areas Conflict management in Southeastern Europe the use of force as a last resort The Georgian Abkhazian conflict failed realpolitik with moralistic justifications Rethinking the concept of peace building Bosnia and the lessons for Kosovo Kosovo and the international community Index Transnational Catholicism in Post-Communist Europe Timothy A. Byrnes,2001-08-27 Through the use of three case studies Poland Croatia and the Slovak Republic Timothy Byrnes argues that the Catholic Church remains deeply involved in the central politics of this vital region over both governmental structure and public policy deeply implicated for better or worse in the ethnic divisions that characterize the post communist era and profoundly part of the social fabric of virtually every state in East Central Europe Moscow's Lost Empire Michael Rywkin,2016-09-16 This volume gives an overview of the regional ethnic and political structure of the Soviet empire from its establishment through its ultimate disintegration It provides a corrective to the Russocentrism and Great Power bias that has marked most studies of the Soviet Union Censorship Derek Jones,2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression The Catholic Church in Polish History Sabrina P. Ramet,2017-06-22 The book chronicles the evolution of the church s political power throughout Poland s unique history Beginning in the tenth century the study first details how Catholicism overcame early challenges in Poland from converting the early polytheists to pushing back the Protestant Reformation half a millennium later It continues into the dawn of the modern age including the division of Poland between Prussia Russia and Austria between 1772 and 1795 the interwar years the National Socialist occupation of World War Two and the communist and post war communist eras during which The Church only half correctly presented itself as a steadfast protector of Poles with clergy members who either stood up to foreign authorities or collaborated with those same Nazi and Communist leaders

This study ends with a consideration of how the Church has taken advantage of the fall of communism to push its own social agenda at times against the wishes of most Poles
