Religion Rationality Essays On Reason:

Religion and Rationality Jürgen Habermas, 2014-10-15 This important new volume brings together Habermas key writing on religion and religious belief Habermas explores the relations between Christian and Jewish thought on the one hand and the Western philosophical tradition on the other In so doing he examines a range of important figures including Benjamin Heidegger Johann Baptist Metz and Gershom Scholem In a new introduction written especially for this volume Eduardo Mendieta places Habermas engagement with religion in the context of his work as a whole Mendieta also discusses Habermas writings in relation to Jewish Messianism and the Frankfurt School showing how the essays in Religion and Rationality one of which is translated into English for the first time foreground an important yet often neglected dimension of critical theory The volume concludes with an original extended interview also in English for the first time in which Habermas develops his current views on religion in modern society This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in theology religious studies and philosophy as well as to all those already familiar with Habermas work

Rationality, Religious Belief, and Moral Commitment Robert Audi, William J. Wainwright, 1986 This book is unified by three broad concerns the rationality of belief in God the relation between religion and morality and the explication of the concept of God The essays are however marked by diversity Some focus on historical figures such as Aquinas and Locke others bring recent epistemological and metaphysical developments to bear on problems of religious belief Some of the papers explore neglected issues central to religious practice such as the question of how total devotion to God can permit other deep commitments others apply philosophical distinctions from within a religious tradition for example in setting out a Christian approach to the problem of evil

Discoursing the Post-secular Péter Losonczi, Aakash Singh, 2010 This collection of fresh and lively essays analyzes the Habermasian post secular turn as it has been evolving over the last decade triggering intensive debates in social and political theory but at the same time aims to situate the arising postsecular discourses within the larger intellectual environment shaped by the complex influence of the alleged return of religion or the religious The volume includes studies from as diverse fields as cultural theory social theory political philosophy and theory of religion as well as theology and bioethics Key issues such as tolerance the nature and challenges of modernity pluralism knowledge and faith human dignity ritual idolatry or transcendence are brought into the discussion in an inventive way and Habermas's work is reflected upon in comparison with figures like Levinas Vattimo and Agnes Heller

Beyond Faith and Rationality Ricardo Sousa Silvestre, Benedikt Paul Göcke, Jean-Yves Béziau, Purushottama Bilimoria, 2020-09-16 This volume deals with the relation between faith and reason and brings the latest developments of modern logic into the scene Faith and rationality are two perennial key concepts in the history of ideas Philosophers and theologians have struggled to bring into harmony these otherwise conflicting concepts Despite the diversity of approaches about what rationality effectively means logic remains the canon of objective and rational thought The chapters in this volume analyze several issues pertaining to the philosophy of religion and philosophical theology from the perspective of their relation to logic and the benefit they can derive from the use of modern logic tools The book is divided into five parts I Introduction II Analytic Philosophy of Religion III Logical Philosophy of Religion IV Computational Philosophy and Religion and V Logic Language and Religion This text appeals to students and researchers in the field

Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation Alan D. Schrift, 2014-09-11 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory s Second Generation analyses the major themes and developments in a period that brought continental philosophy to the forefront of scholarship in a variety of humanities and social science disciplines and that set the agenda for philosophical thought on the continent and elsewhere from the 1960s to the present Focusing on the years 1960-1984 the volume examines the major figures associated with poststructuralism and the second generation of critical theory the two dominant movements that emerged in the 1960s Althusser Foucault Deleuze Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Habermas Influential thinkers such as Serres Bourdieu and Rorty who are not easily placed in standard histories of the period are also covered Beyond this thematic essays engage with issues as diverse as the Nietzschean legacy the linguistic turn in continental thinking the phenomenological inheritance of Gadamer and Ricoeur the influence of psychoanalysis the emergence of feminist thought and a philosophy of sexual difference the renewal of the critical theory tradition and the importation of continental philosophy into literary theory

Religion and Women in Britain, c. 1660-1760 Sarah Apetrei, 2016-04-08

The essays contained in this volume examine the particular religious experiences of women within a remarkably vibrant and formative era in British religious history Scholars from the disciplines of history literary studies and theology assess women's contributions to renewal change and reform and consider the ways in which women negotiated institutional and intellectual boundaries The focus on women's various religious roles and responses helps us to understand better a world of religious commitment which was not separate from but also not exclusively shaped by the political intellectual and ecclesiastical disputes of a clerical elite As well as deepening our understanding of both popular and elite religious cultures in this period and the links between them the volume re-focuses scholarly approaches to the history of gender and especially the history of feminism by setting the British writers often characterised as early feminists firmly in their theological and spiritual traditions

Divine Action and Providence Zondervan, 2019-11-26 Thinking Clearly and Deeply about the Theology of God's Intervention in the World The claim that God acts in the world is surely a basic theological claim but it's one that has been understood in a wide variety of ways in the Christian theological tradition In some accounts God appears as the largest first and most powerful agent In others God is portrayed as the transcendent ground of all finite agency while never acting on the same plane as other agents Divine Action and Providence represents the proceedings of the seventh annual Los Angeles Theology Conference which invited theologians across Christian traditions to contribute their constructive accounts and proposals to the theology of God's relation to and intervention in the world The eleven diverse essays in this collection include discussions on The particularity and detail of divine action Recovering the identity of the God of providence The theological meaning of the course of history The nature of omnipotence Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future
