The background image is a landscape photograph of a rugged coastline. In the foreground, dark, jagged rock formations lead down to a small, shallow pool of water. The ocean is a deep blue, meeting a sky filled with soft, white and pinkish clouds. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow that illuminates the clouds and the water's surface. The overall mood is serene and inspiring, suggesting a path forward or a new beginning.

Journal to the Truth Dave Payton, 2009-05 A life of sin can place us on a dangerous path Many people do not recognize their destructive behavioral patterns but for others this is a life style Sin has no boundaries and it is capable of destroying the lives of very good people This book will engage the reader and will expose those things which may have a negative influence in a person's life. It is important to recognize that all sins are forgiven when we place our trust in God. This book contains specific topics designed to promote journaling. While some of these topics are very sensitive, they will also open the door for healing as God will use this time to touch your heart. I hope you enjoy this intimate time with God. Dave Payton was born in Portsmouth, Ohio, in 1957 and moved to Arizona at the age of five. He was raised in South Phoenix. He grew up in a predominately Hispanic neighborhood. It was in the streets that his lessons were learned. He acquired a different perspective on life as God showed him how to accept others for who they really are. Through much adversity and help along the way, he was able to fight his way to a better life. His tough life gave him compassion for those who suffered. His passion for the less fortunate will always be a soft spot in his heart as he can only thank God for saving him.
