Final Passage: Sharing the Journey as This Life Ends, by Barbara Harris Whitfield. Deerfield Beach, FL: Health Communications, 1998, 202 pp., $10.95.

Book titles are often misleading, but not in this case. Final Passage: Sharing the Journey as this Life Ends depicts exactly what the book is about—ten people who shared their final transitions with the author. Who is Barbara Harris Whitfield and why does she qualify as the litterateur? She is a thanatologist, respiratory therapist, and near-death experience researcher. Her literary accomplishments include numerous articles and two books, Full Circle: The Near-Death Experience and Beyond (Harris and Bascom, 1990) and Spiritual Awakenings: Insights of the Near-Death Experience and other Doorways to Our Soul (Whitfield, 1995). Beyond her professional achievements, she is a compassionate and caring individual who experienced a close call with death herself.

In the introduction, Whitfield stated her purpose for writing Final Passage: “I offer these stories and the way I experienced them in the hope that you may gain compassion and mastery over the process that we call death” (p. xviii). She furthermore set a sensitive tone that flows throughout the publication: “I wrote Final Passage from the perspective of how important universal energy is on many levels: in helping spiritual growth, in reducing pain and in creating a healing atmosphere” (p. xvii). Within the first ten pages, her thesis was well in place: By mastering death we learn how to live more fully.

Sharing The Final Journey:

The Final Journey: Larry D. Horton PhD, 2017-03-30 It is the summer of 2016 and the possibility that a dark world exists in the future is a theory no one wants to become a reality As signs of impending turmoil increase and a presidential election looms in the near future two married Christian survivalists begin preparations for a fifteen hundred mile journey to what they hope is a safe place Along the way they log their experiences in a diary while strictly adhering to the mantra to always be prepared for the worst As the couple creates the four Es criteria evaluate escape evade and endure that will dictate their journey they pledge to stay true to them hinged on a strong faith that they will be led by an eternal plan After evaluating their priorities and finalizing the details the couple finally sets out in January on their quest to survive within a different world As a new president is inaugurated and the country becomes more divided than ever the Christian survivalists rely on their faith scripture and inner strength as they transform into determiners of their own future But can they overcome their challenges and endure long enough to reach their destination In this fictionalized diary two Christian survivalists vividly describe their faith filled journey to begin a new chapter within a tumultuous post election world
