Shark Sunday Mary Rayner, 1998 A boy buys a box full of rubbish at a car boot sale and discovers inside a lamp with a genie He is granted three wishes and wastes one of them on a flippant comment about his maths teacher and ocean of sharks Will the genie be able to help the teacher from her sticky end First published in hardback in 1997 With black and white drawings

Man-Eaters Michael Bright, 2013-12-10 In this horrifying study of the world s most dangerous predatory animals and their human trophies Michael Bright unleashed hundreds of gruesome true stories to shock the unshockable If you think we re at the top of the food chain think again And watch your back

Aftershock Kieran Cashell, 2009-08-30 Accused by the tabloid press of setting out to shock controversial artworks are vigorously defended by art critics who frequently downplay their disturbing emotional impact This is the first book to subject contemporary art to a rigorous ethical exploration It argues that in favouring conceptual rather than emotional reactions commentators actually fail to engage with the work they promote Scrutinising notorious works by artists including Damien Hirst Jake and Dinos Chapman Richard Billingham Marc Quinn Sally Mann Marcus Harvey Hans Bellmer Paul McCarthy Tierney Gearon and Tracey Emin Aftershock insists on the importance of visceral emotional and ethical responses Far from clouding our judgement Cashell argues shame outrage or revulsion are the very emotions that such works set out to evoke While also questioning the catch all notion of transgression this illuminating and controversial book neither jumps indiscriminately to the defence of shocking artworks nor dismisses them out of hand

Sharks in the Shallows W. Clay Creswell, 2021-06-14 A detailed account of over one hundred shark related incidents on the coast of the Carolinas from a shark bite investigator Powerful and mysterious sharks inspire both fascination and fear Worldwide oceans are home to some five hundred species and of those fifty six are known to reside in or pass through the waters off the coast of both North and South Carolina At any given time waders swimmers and surfers enjoying these waters are frequently within just one hundred feet of a shark While it s unnerving to know that sharks often swim just below the surface in the shallows W Clay Creswell a shark bite investigator for the Shark Research Institute s Global Shark Attack File explains that attacks on humans are extremely rare In 2019 the International Shark Attack File confirmed sixty four unprovoked attacks on humans including three in North Carolina and one in South Carolina While acknowledging that they pose real dangers to humans Creswell believes the fear of sharks is greatly exaggerated During his sixteen year association with the Shark Research Institute he has investigated more than one hundred shark related incidents and has maintained a database of all shark human encounters along the Carolina coastlines back to 1817 Creswell uses this data to expose the truth and history of this often sensationalized topic Beyond the statistics related to attacks in the Carolina waters Sharks in the Shallows offers a history of shark human interactions and an introduction to the world of shark attacks Creswell details the conditions that increase a person s chances of an encounter profiles the three species most often involved in attacks and reveals the months and time of day with the highest probability of an encounter With a better understanding of sharks responses to their environment and what motivates them to attack humans he hopes people will develop a greater appreciation of the invaluable role sharks play in our marine environment

Elkerton Rectory, Being Part Second of "Twenty Years in the Church.". James Pycroft, 1862 Shark Attacks Alex MacCormick, 2025-06-25 More horrifying than Jaws because it s true Since 1990 there have been 283 shark attacks worldwide 40 of which were fatal In the past 15 years reports of shark attacks have substantially increased Over half the attacks occur in water no deeper than five feet Believe it or not shark attacks are still a very real threat to humans These unspeakably bloody encounters happen in shallow water in safe areas to people just like you people who thought it could never happen to them HONG KONG 1995 A forty five year old woman swimming in shallow water with fifty other people has one leg and one arm ripped off by the shark she dies before reaching the hospital CALIFORNIA 1993 A man snorkeling with friends is swallowed headfirst halfway down his body luckily the shark spits him back out with only bite wounds AUSTRALIA 1993 A professional diver and mother of five is literally torn in half in front of her horrified family by a fifteen foot great white shark HAWAII 1991 Two vacationing friends out for a swim suddenly see a shark the size of a car swim by After one of the women begins thrashing in panic the shark attacks and kills her her body is later recovered with several limbs missing Read on for more blood chilling accounts of people who fell prey to SHARK ATTACKS Man-Eaters of the World Alex MacCormick, 2014-10-07 Humans may have reached the top of the food chain but the world is still teeming with apex predators who retain the advantage in their own environments and sometimes venture into ours especially when they have gained a taste for human blood Survivors hunters and witnesses recall first hand accounts of hair raising fatal encounters with massive and dangerous beasts of the wild describing the often rapid and unstoppable series of events that result in devastation and serve to bolster the legends of the world's flesh hungry man-eaters. Relentless wolves and rogue elephants, swarms of fire ants and vicious sharks, ruthless panthers, grizzly bears, crocodiles, and even human cannibals all have taken their toll on unsuspecting travelers. Saturday Review, 1875. Wind of Peace Elli K. Straus, 2016-11-03. Realizing that the time is right to act on their crazy idea of pulling their two daughters out of school for a year, shut down the house and embark on a sailing sabbatical, Elli and her husband David pitch the idea to their daughters. With just a few months planning time available, what follows is a mad rush to take sailing lessons, buy and equip a boat, devote countless hours to researching every aspect of their trip, and attempt to convince friends and relatives that they haven't completely lost their minds. Temporary home found for their beloved dog, Chester, boat stuffed with provisions, charts, and safety gear, their trip is almost over before it even begins when a strong summer squall causes their 42 sailboat to drag through the anchorage on their journey's first stormy night. Twenty Years in the Church James Paycroft, 1862. The Oliver Stone Encyclopedia James M. Welsh, Donald M. Whaley, 2013. Oliver Stone has written and directed many memorable films while also developing a reputation for tackling controversial subjects such as the Turkish prison system, Midnight Express, the Vietnam War Platoon, and Born on the Fourth of July, insider trading, Wall Street, presidential assassination, JFK, and a voyeuristic media. Natural Born Killers. Along the way, Stone has been nominated for more than 10 Academy Awards and three times received Oscars for his work. In The Oliver Stone Encyclopedia, James M. Welsh and Donald M. Whaley provide an overarching evaluation of Stone's work as screenwriter, producer, and director. While the entries in this volume address all of the usual aspects of Stone's career, they also explore new avenues of critical evaluation, especially influences such as Friedrich Nietzsche and Buddhism, which Stone converted to in the 1990s. In addition, this volume traces Stone's obsession with Latin American politics, evident in his film Salvador (1986), his screenplay for Alan Parker's Evita (1996), and the documentaries Commandante (2003), Looking for Fidel (2004), and South of the Border (2010). Each entry is followed by a bibliography of published sources, both in print and online. A comprehensive and engaging examination of the director, The Oliver Stone Encyclopedia will appeal to scholars and fans alike as the most comprehensive reference on this director's body of work. Eden Candice Fox, 2015-08-25. Winner of the Ned Kelly Award, Justice is good, Vengeance is better. A new murder mystery star, Candice Fox, may just be your new literary addiction. Primo Life. I fool myself that Eden has a heart that she would at least have trouble killing me. Most homicide detective teams run on trust, loyalty, and the shared desire to put killers behind bars. Frank Bennett's partner, Eden Archer, thrives on darkness and danger. She has a rare talent for catching killers, but her idea of justice has little to do with courtrooms. Now three girls are missing, and Eden is going undercover to a remote farm where the troubled go to hide and blood falls more often than rain. Frank's job is to keep an eye on his partner while she's there, but is it for Eden's protection or to protect others from her? Walking a tightrope between duty and desperation, Frank confronts a threat from Eden's past: the sadistic crime lord Hades, who raised her. Suddenly, the hunter is the hunted. And a killer's vicious desires are about to be unleashed The breathtaking new thriller from the author of Hades winner of the Ned Kelly Award for Best Debut Crime Novel establishes Candice Fox as a suspense writer of international renown and undisputed power Born Again Hunter David Dawson Humes, 2014-04-10 On the hypothesis that we are all born to be hunters and that life is one big hunting trip then my first book Planting Seeds the Early Years could be equated to Hunting for Dummies In Book 2 Laying Down Roots the Intermediate Years my hunts unfold as I alternate from pursuing big game such as a life partner a career self esteem and meaningfulness to small game like rest areas a runners high vacations or fun while in search of my ultimate prey self actualization In my quest I will be periodically called upon to pull into a service station to rebalance and realign myself and then gas up before proceeding There will be times when I push myself to exhaustion on the brink of a complete breakdown only to find a saving fork in the road When faced with adversity will I choose flight fight freeze or something else Youll need to read to find out Adventure ,1924 Killers in the Water - The New Super Sharks Terrorising The World's Oceans Sue Blackhall, 2012-07-27 Sharks are intriguing and beautiful creatures but they can also be deadly As we humans have explored the world s oceans and exploited them for tourism and recreation we have found ourselves coming into contact with more and more sharks And the outcome can be fatal From the Seychelles to South Africa and Australia to North America tourists divers and surfers have seemingly found themselves under increased threat from unprovoked shark attacks Fatal attacks have occurred in locations that were previously thought to be safe and in late 2010 the Egyptian resort of Sharm el Sheikh was rocked by an incredible five shark attacks in a matter of weeks But are sharks really ruthless vicious killers or are they simply reacting to humans invading their habitat Has the number of shark attacks increased in recent years What can be done to prevent shark attacks All these questions and more are answered in this fascinating book Consumer Credit Industry United States.
