proverbs which showcase how artistically indifferent one can be A look into VLJ's perspective on life Flow the Feeling of a Poet Lavell Harris, 2016-08-05 Flow is a poetry short book that's based on daily life It covers mostly every issue and situation that I believe people go through on a daily basis such as violence low self esteem faith love hate pain and more just to name a few Flow brings and reveals true stories based on my life and what I've gone through and still am in today's life which I feel people can relate to Traces of mediation in rewriting and translation Margherita Ulrych, 2015-07-13 Although the bridge building metaphor is undoubtedly a legitimate way of approaching most forms of mediation there is increasing evidence in the literature that this is not always the case The scenario in which mediation operates is much more complex and it is one in which mediators' compliance or resistance to contextual and socio cultural factors and prevailing norms in a given point in history play a major role Attention is increasingly being focussed on the nature of the rewritings they produce and on how their agency is made manifest This holds true for rewritings that take place within the same language across language boundaries and in the growing area of audio visual translation In his article on The Name and Nature of Translator Studies Chesterman 2009 and in his interview of Baker in the first issue of Cultus Chesterman and Baker 2008 Chesterman draws attention to the central role occupied by the translator both in the workplace and as an object of research and proposes to make use of the term telos to denote the personal motivation of translators 2009 17 as a companion term to the more familiar term skopos already used in translation studies to indicate the intended effect of a translation in the target culture Thus telos serves to investigate the personal goal of a translator within the context of a specific task a matter closely related to the ethics of the profession Since translation necessarily involves some kind of active intervention on the part of the translator Munday 2007 be it conscious or unconscious whereby events are rewritten and renarrated and as translation passes through a continua of transformation not abstract ideas of identity and similarity Benjamin 1996 70 research into translators' teloi may well shed new light on why and how they translate and may usefully complement current studies on translation behaviour as it emerges from translated texts Of particular interest in this regard is the broadening of the notion of translation to include other forms of rewriting in which the rewriter's interventionist role is a central feature The present volume addresses various forms of translation and rewriting and explores the strategies rewriters use to achieve their goal of rendering the target text accessible to its recipient audience Knowing how to rewrite in English entails developing an awareness of the whys and wherefores of rewriting Just as knowledge about language leads to awareness of language which in turn leads to increased efficiency and sensitivity to language so familiarity with the general principles of translation and rewriting leads to enhanced competence and performance Excerpted from the Preface Five Plays Anton Chekhov, 2010-10-21 Anton Pavlovich Chekhov 1860 1904 overturned the dramatic conventions of his day and laid the groundwork for contemporary approaches to directing and acting Now for the first time the full lyricism humor and pathos of his greatest plays are available to an English speaking audience Marina Brodskaya's new translations of Ivanov The

Seagull Uncle Vanya Three Sisters and The Cherry Orchard not only surpass in accuracy all previous translations but also provide the first complete English text of the plays restoring passages entirely omitted by her predecessors This much needed volume renders Chekhov in language that will move readers and theater audiences alike making accessible his wordplay unstated implications and innovations His characters vulnerabilities needs and neuroses their humanity emerge through their genuine self absorbed conversations The plays come to life as never before and will surprise readers with their vivacity originality and relevance

Leon,2007-11-20 This is a love story based on events that occurred in my life more than fifty years ago Some of the names have been changed and some events may have been diminished or embellished while recalling things that happened when writing the story The story is a based on recollections of actual experiences I had It is a story filled with discovery joy and the innocence of teenage years back in the fiftys It also shows how those years became the building blocks of a lifetime The motivation for writing this came from an extraordinary thing that happened to me in the Spring of 2006 that stirred my memory and caused me to recall with clarity what I had so long ago buried in my subconscious mind I met a person who became a good friend but more importantly she reawakened everything I had discovered in that one magical summer back in 1954 Looking back as an adult fifty years later made me realize that there is symmetry in life but many people never take the time to see it This all started for me when we returned from our Winter Condo in Boca Raton Florida in April of 2006 As per my usual morning routine I continued to awaken early and go over to Starbucks to sit and have my morning cup of Decaf Americano Id sit there and read the Daily News or the New York Times and chat with some fascinating people I had met whod become friends in the several years since I retired One particular April morning I came in and they had a new person in charge of the morning shift working there From the moment I saw her I could not stop looking at her There was something instantly so familiar about her but I wasnt able to see exactly what it was initially When I made the connection with what it was it hit me like a ton of bricks After we were introduced we began chatting briefly but the more we made small talk the less I actually heard what she was saying as memories of my past flooded back All of a sudden I was fifteen years old again I knew then I had to sit down and somehow get this written I also knew I would at some point have to share this amazing story with her if or when I got to know her better It was interesting recalling my early childhood and the events that brought me to that wonderful summer of discovery and falling in love for what I believed then to be the first and last time in my life That summer held some of the keys to the person I would become as I grew up and dealt with life at all ages
