Shell Of British Buildings:

Shell Structures for Architecture Sigrid Adriaenssens, Philippe Block, Diederik Veenendaal, Chris Williams, 2014-03-21
Featuring a foreword by Pritzker Prize Winner Shigeru Ban Bringing together experts from research and practice Shell Structures for Architecture Form Finding and Optimization presents contemporary design methods for shell and gridshell structures covering form finding and structural optimization techniques It introduces architecture and engineering practitioners and students to structural shells and provides computational techniques to develop complex curved structural surfaces in the form of mathematics computer algorithms and design case studies Part I introduces the topic of shells tracing the ancient relationship between structural form and forces the basics of shell behaviour and the evolution of form finding and structural optimization techniques Part II familiarizes the reader with form finding techniques to explore expressive structural geometries covering the force density method thrust network analysis dynamic relaxation and particle spring systems Part III focuses on shell shape and topology optimization and provides a deeper understanding of gradient based methods and meta heuristic techniques Part IV contains precedent studies of realised shells and gridshells describing their innovative design and construction methods British Sources of Information P. Jackson, 2003-09-02 This comprehensive and versatile reference source will be a most important tool for anyone wishing to seek out information on virtually any aspect of British affairs life and culture The resources of a detailed bibliography directory and journals listing are combined in this single volume forming a unique guide to a multitude of diverse topics British politics government society literature thought arts economics history and geography Academic subjects as taught in British colleges and universities are covered with extensive reading lists of books and journals and sources of information for each discipline making this an invaluable manual The Building of the British Isles Alfred John Jukes-Browne, 1892 Structural Foundations Manual for Low-Rise Buildings Michael Atkinson, 2020-11-25 This book provides practical and buildable solutions for the design of foundations for housing and other low rise buildings especially those on abnormal or poor ground A wealth of expert information and advice is brought together dealing with the key aspects a designer must consider in order to achieve effective and economic foundation designs This second edition of Structural Foundations Manual for Low Rise Buildings has been completely updated in line with the new government guidelines on contaminated land and brown field sites The book includes well detailed design solutions and calculations actual case histories illustrations design charts and check lists making it a user friendly reference for contractors structural engineers architects and students who have to deal with foundations for low rise buildings on sites with difficult ground conditions Aylesbury in 50 Buildings Paul Rabbitts, 2022-11-15 A fascinating exploration of some of the architectural heritage of the Buckinghamshire town of Aylesbury What Colour is your Building? David Clark, 2019-07-25 Defining and reducing the carbon footprint of a new or refurbished building can be a daunting task There are lots of tools to measure the environmental impact of buildings but they all measure energy and CO₂ in different ways and they do not measure the whole carbon footprint What Colour is your Building provides practical and pragmatic guidance on how to calculate and then compare the whole carbon footprint of buildings using one simple method looking at operating embodied and transport energy It will equip designers building owners occupiers planners and policy makers with the tools and knowledge that they will need to make decisions early on about where the big impacts will be in terms of reducing the carbon footprint of the building including A new simple approach to understanding the whole carbon impact of buildings Benchmarking data for operating energy performance A clear transparent method of separating landlord energy performance from tenant energy performance Simple diagrams and numbers to put renewable energy into perspective

Metaphorical Practices in Architecture Sarah Borree, Stephanie Knuth, Moritz Röger, 2023-06-23 Metaphors are diversly and intricately embedded in architectural practice and discourse Precisely for this reason this volume argues and sets out to explore how they can be engaged to critically interrogate architecture s social cultural and political dimensions past and present and to productively challenge and intervene with established perspectives debates and practices Mapping out not just potentials but also addressing the challenges limitations and dangers inherent in using metaphors in architectural research and practice the volume prominently illustrates the ambiguity and contradictoriness inherent in both metaphors and the process of engaging and exploiting them Covering a broad range of historical and geographical cases and concerns the contributions illustrate effectively that metaphors can expand or narrow our engagement with architecture and consolidate or legitimise but also destabilise and challenge established social cultural disciplinary and political structures concepts and categories With its aim to explore metaphors as both subject and method to critically challenge and expand established practices perspectives and standards in architectural research and practice the volume will be of interest for scholars working across the architectural humanities including architectural history theory culture design and urbanism as well as for researchers concerned with architecture and the city from fields such as cultural visual and area studies as well as art history

The History of Architecture Gaynor Aaltonen, 2013-07-28 This book takes a bird s eye view of architecture in time and explores the different ways architects have responded to civilizations giving them the buildings and cities they deserve
