Of Summits and Sacrifice Thomas Besom, 2010-01-01 In perhaps as few as one hundred years the Inka Empire became the largest state ever formed by a native people anywhere in the Americas dominating the western coast of South America by the early sixteenth century Because the Inkas had no system of writing it was left to Spanish and semi indigenous authors to record the details of the religious rituals that the Inkas believed were vital for consolidating their conquests Synthesizing these arresting accounts that span three centuries Thomas Besom presents a wealth of descriptive data on the Inka practices of human sacrifice and mountain worship supplemented by archaeological evidence Of Summits and Sacrifice offers insight into the symbolic connections between landscape and life that underlay Inka religious beliefs In vivid prose Besom links significant details ranging from the reasons for cyclical sacrificial rites to the varieties of mountain deities producing a uniquely powerful cultural history

Richter,2017-09-26 This volume accompanies a major international loan exhibition featuring more than three hundred works of art many rarely or never before seen in the United States It traces the development of gold working and other luxury arts in the Americas from antiquity until the arrival of Europeans in the early sixteenth century Presenting spectacular works from recent excavations in Peru Colombia Panama Costa Rica Guatemala and Mexico this exhibition focuses on specific places and times crucibles of innovation where artistic exchange rivalry and creativity led to the production of some of the greatest works of art known from the ancient Americas The book and exhibition explore not only artistic practices but also the historical cultural social and political conditions in which luxury arts were produced and circulated alongside their religious meanings and ritual functions Golden Kingdoms creates new understandings of ancient American art through a thematic exploration of indigenous ideas of value and luxury Central to the book is the idea of the exchange of materials and ideas across regions and across time works of great value would often be transported over long distances or passed down over generations in both cases attracting new audiences and inspiring new artists The idea of exchange is at the intellectual heart of this volume researched and written by twenty scholars based in the United States and Latin America The Shell-bearing Land Snails of Ohio Celeste Taft,Richard E. White,1913 Inca Rituals and Sacred Mountains Maria Constanza Ceruti,Johan Reinhard,2010-12-31 The Incas carried out some of the most dramatic ceremonies known to us from ancient times Groups of people walked hundreds of miles across arid and mountainous terrain to perform them on mountains over 6 096 m 20 000 feet high The most important offerings made during these pilgrimages involved human sacrifices capacochas Although Spanish chroniclers wrote about these offerings and the state sponsored processions of which they were a part their accounts were based on second hand sources and the only direct evidence we have of the capacocha sacrifices comes to us from archaeological excavations Some of the most thoroughly documented of these were undertaken on high mountain summits where the material evidence has been exceptionally well preserved In this study we describe the results of research undertaken on Mount Llullaillaco 6 739 m 22 109 feet which has the world s highest archaeological site The types of ruins and artifact assemblages recovered are described and analyzed By comparing the archaeological evidence with the chroniclers accounts and with findings from other mountaintop sites common patterns are demonstrated while at the same time previously little known elements contribute to our understanding of key aspects of Inca religion This study illustrates the importance of archaeological sites being placed within the broader context of physical and sacred features of the natural landscape The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia: Dictionary William Dwight Whitney,1904 A History of Mountains Joseph Wilson,1809 Scientific American ,1916 MI2006: The Nevada mineral industry 2006 , Mining and Scientific Press ,1898 Processing of Nanoparticle Materials and Nanostructured Films Kathy Lu,Chris
