THINGS BUILT Anthony Green Jr., 2014-06-06 Inside of a slightly dimmed room with just enough light to see the canvas but still it's as if the room is completely dark the way thoughts become visible without distraction Slight ventilation from a cracked window constantly rumbles papers on the floor out of sight of the light On my desk are lined paper and a box of pencils rather than pens because I've grown to become indecisive in this process In these sessions I often thought of the greats who influenced me So to the left of my paper was a typewriter and behind me were timeless horns and vibrant jazz screaming from vinyl This is the room where I learned to invent This is the room where things were built a body of poems that was designed to serve as a portrait rather than just a collection Every piece had its own blueprint and was built with certain details to depict aspects of the overall image portrayed Haunted Southern Nights, Vol. 4, Using a offers an in depth discussion of the evolution of modernist poetry in Taiwan with a focus on periods preceding and following World War II and contextualizes the movement within the broader frameworks of Western Japanese and Chinese modernism Through a comparative dialectical approach each chapter introduces individual poets and their works to explore key modernist themes such as intellectualism, pure poetry, translinguistic practice, exile, Cold War cultural ideology and irony. Despite its significance, Taiwan's modern poetry has received inadequate scholarly attention within Sinophone language and literature studies. This work aims to address the gap in the literature, offering fresh perspectives and innovative methodological and theoretical frameworks for those interested in Taiwan's modernist poetic tradition.

Events and Economic Development Mike Duignan, 2025-06-20. Events and Economic Development explores the economic impact and developmental implications of designing, planning and delivering major events from cultural events like the Notting Hill Carnival and Day of the Dead to sporting events like the Olympics to the Super Bowl. This book comprises 24 chapters, each addressing various, diverse and interconnected topics related to the economic and development implications of hosting events. Each chapter follows a consistent structure, beginning with the aim and learning objectives, followed by theoretical focuses and the significance of these perspectives. Similarly, practical focuses and their significance are also outlined. The main body of each chapter consists of an 800 to 2000 word argument. Following the argument, chapters include managerial policy and/or research implications, explicitly mapping how they relate to the UN Sustainable Development Goals. Each chapter concludes with a series of quizzes to test knowledge and debate questions to engage learners in discussing and interrogating the argument. Some of the topics covered include Nation Branding through Events, Urban Transformation via Events, Commercialization of Culture and Events, Crisis and Resilience in Event Management, Sustainability in Event Hosting, Cultural Identity and Heritage Preservation, Globalization of Sports and Festivals, Media and Narrative Evolution, Ethics and Sponsorship in Events, Community Impacts and Gentrification. This innovative, topical, engaging and comprehensive book is an essential reading and teaching resource for all students and lecturers in events that are easy to integrate into educational programmes.
