Paradigm Lost? David Jablonsky, 1993 Sometime in the penultimate decade of the 20th century the United States and its allies won the cold war Once again in the current transition period the primary questions revolve around the management of power and America's role in global politics Once again there are the issues of change and continuity In terms of change the cold war set in train a blend of integrative and disintegrative forces and trends that are adding to the complex tensions of the current transition The integrative force that increasingly linked global economies in the cold war for instance also holds out the spectral potential of global depression or at the very least nations more susceptible to disintegrative actions as the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait demonstrated In a similar manner the advances in communications and transportation that have spread the results of medical and scientific discoveries around the world are countered by the malign transnational results of nuclear technology the drug trade terrorism AIDS and global warming A History of a Journeyman Poet Robert Mäder-Kammer, 2015-03-13 But whatever power I may have over my own thoughts I find the ideas actually perceived by sense have not a like dependence on my will When in the broad daylight I open my eyes it is not in my power to choose whether I shall see or no or what particular objects shall present themselves to my view and so likewise as to the hearing and other senses George Berkeley 1710 Principles of Human Knowledge Section 29 The History of a Journeyman Poet is a collection of autobiographical semi autobiographical fantasy and science fiction poems Though all the joy and all the pain the author has experienced over the course of his life all this joy and pain are far exceeded or matched by countless others What are unique are the authors perceptions and interpretations when seeing hearing or smelling his wordcraft The goal of the craft of poetry writing like other creative works is to produce a master work In the old craft guilds all start out as apprentices Some move on to become journeymen a smaller number become masters According to the author these are his journeyman poems As the journeyman is corrected by his master the author welcomes corrections by his masters Also like the literal meaning of the phrase journey man this collection of poems are interpretations of a few moments in the authors unique yet ordinary life s journey

Current Policy ,1984 The Diplomacy of the Crucial Decade Diane B. Kunz,1994 Although the foreign policy decisions made by Kennedy and Johnson determined the final form of postwar diplomacy and laid the foundation for the tumultuous worldwide political changes of the last five years until now no book has examined American diplomacy during 1960s as a whole During his presidency Kennedy concentrated on foreign policy The president and his staff feared that communism had taken the offensive internationally and that the U S was in danger of losing the confrontation particularly in the developing world While Johnson attempted to focus on domestic issues foreign issues nevertheless loomed large Consequently the contributors to this volume argue all aspects of American foreign policy during that decade must be viewed through the prism of the fight against communism The chapters which were commissioned for this book by the editor examine the major subjects and themes of this period in a way that provides new insight to students and general readers alike Each chapter also contains brief notes and a bibliographic sketch

□□□□□□□□ □□,2003 The Iran-United States Claims Tribunal and the Process of International Claims Resolution David D. Caron,Crook,2021-10-01 Examining the Tribunal s structure operations and evolution in search of the underlying patterns that characterize such international institutions this valuable book records the diverse experiences and judgments of a group of outstanding lawyers

each of whom has played a significant role at some stage of the Tribunal's proceedings. The essays are grouped in three distinct stages in the Tribunal's history. The first group deals with the creation of the Tribunal building upon the bare-boned framework laid down by the Claims Settlement Declaration. The second deals with the Tribunal at work processing and deciding cases during the period when it gave greatest emphasis to resolving large commercial claims. The third deals with the present situation where the Tribunal has taken a docket first dominated by claims of U.S./Iranian dual nationals against Iran and then by a small group of large and difficult claims between the two governments. Published under the auspices of the American Society of International Law. Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint.
