Compassionate Caregiving Lois D. Knutson,2007-06-01 Spiritual and Practical Help From a Caregiver Most caregivers today have no training for the role into which they are thrust Having been the primary caregiver for her mother Lois Knutson draws on not only her years of experience but also her professional training to offer encouragement and assistance to caregivers Because she knows the situations that weigh down caregivers Knutson gently builds them up as they continue to care for their elderly loved ones In addition to practical tips readers will find ways to care for themselves Subjects addressed in Compassionate Caregiving include how to balance work and caregiving when and how to find home healthcare or care facilities long distance caregiving how to provide for the dying and much more A Book of Prayers for Daily Conversation with God and Prayers for Special Occasions George M. Plasterer,2023-12-14 Part of our life of prayer can be a conversation with God This book will help the reader broaden and deepen that conversation allowing that conversation to touch every area of life After an introduction that explores various facets of a life of prayer the book offers five months of prayers that model a conversation with God concluding with prayers for the seasons of the year and other special occasions The New Jerusalem Messenger William Benjamin Hayden,John L. Jewett,James Parke Stuart,Chauncey Giles,Charles Holbrook

Mann,1872 Looking Inward Jennifer Bryan,2013-02-12 You must see yourself The exhortation was increasingly familiar to English men and women in the two centuries before the Reformation They encountered it repeatedly in their devotional books the popular guides to spiritual self improvement that were reaching an ever growing readership at the end of the Middle Ages But what did it mean to see oneself What was the nature of the self to be envisioned and what eyes and mirrors were needed to see and know it properly Looking Inward traces a complex network of answers to such questions exploring how English readers between 1350 and 1550 learned to envision examine and change themselves in the mirrors of devotional literature By all accounts it was the most popular literature of the period With literacy on the rise an outpouring of translations and adaptations flowed across traditional boundaries between religious and lay and between female and male audiences As forms of piety changed as social categories became increasingly porous and as the heart became an increasingly privileged and contested location the growth of devotional reading created a crucial arena for the making of literate subjectivities The models of private reading and self reflection constructed therein would have important implications not only for English spirituality but for social political and poetic identities up to the Reformation and beyond In Looking Inward Bryan examines a wide range of devotional and secular texts from works by Walter Hilton Julian of Norwich and Thomas Hoccleve to neglected translations like The Chastising of God s Children and The Pricking of Love She explores the models of identification and imitation through which they sought to reach the inmost selves of their readers and the scripts for spiritual desire that they offered for the cultivation of the heart Illuminating the psychological paradigms at the heart of the genre Bryan provides fresh insights into how late medieval men and women sought to know labor in and profit themselves by means of books
