Wrigley Melissa Coon,2012-10-30 Despite myself I ended up turning to glance back Taylor was standing in front of the space we had just pulled out of staring after the car I felt tears start to fall from my eyes My phone rang five minutes later with her ring tone I hit the answer button and held it to my ear but I didn t say anything You realize this is the second time we ve left things like this the second time one of us has left the other behind in this town Taylor s voice came through choked with emotion disguised by slight anger What is it that you want me to say That we can be friends I m sorry Taylor I can t do that I love you too much to look on as you make a mistake I could feel her turn defensive at my word choice You claim you are in love with him who am I to stand in the way I am taking myself completely out of the equation Just one thing to remember though if you were really in love with him it would not be this hard to let me go I finish in a whisper Goodbye Taylor Tuskegee

Your Brooklyn* Kevin J. Leddy,2017-07-11 Let me just say that if you took two people who grew up in different neighborhoods in Brooklyn and sat them down in a room together they could talk for hours on end and basically share the same stories as if they grew up right next door to each other You see that is why I am writing this book The stories that I will share with you as you turn each page do not belong to me exclusively They are YOUR stories just as much as they are mine All you really have to do is change the names and faces and use your own neighborhood as their back drop and believe me they are yours I have included after each story an empty page for you to put your story on it so it will become Your Brooklyn and a journal to pass on to those who you wish to remember your story I Am My Mother's Memory Leah
