1998, 2001, 2002). According to the International Labour Office (ILO), the new world advertising has been characterized by three main features: first, a rapid entry of advertising agencies in the global market; second, a change in the world advertising landscape toward global practices; and, finally, a shift toward the use of advertising as a tool to build brand equity (Kotler, 2000). There is a need for a new paradigm for the advertising of services, particularly with regard to the Internet (Kotler, 2002).
