The China Ultimatum Raymond Barnett,2012-05 CHINA STUNS THE WORLD by imposing a deadline on Taiwan to join the motherland or face a deadly rain of missiles America will intervene with nuclear weapons if its mediator cannot craft a resolution agreeable to both sides in nine days U S mediator Philip Dawson finds himself the target of an assassin skilled in biological poisons and fiercely attracted to Meiling Bei the tough newswoman assigned to the talks Meiling is also under attack from a powerful clan whose ancient livelihood is threatened by her investigations As they struggle with assassination attempts and their growing desire for each other Philip and Meiling realize that the threats to them are somehow connected and that nuclear war as well as their own lives will be decided by their solving the puzzles that threaten to overwhelm them In the end their fates as well as Taiwan s depend on solving the riddle of a Chinese shipping tycoon with a terrible secret in his past as well as a silk shrouded Chinese Goddess worshipped in coastal temples for a thousand years It is the ninth and last day and the missiles will be launched soon China's Millions ,1888 China's Millions Anonymous,2024-03-05

Reprint of the original first published in 1880 The Friend of China ,1891 True Crimes in Eighteenth-Century China Robert E. Hegel,2011-12-01 The little examined genre of legal case narratives is represented in this fascinating volume the first collection translated into English of criminal cases most involving homicide from late imperial China These true stories of crimes of passion family conflict neighborhood feuds gang violence and sedition are a treasure trove of information about social relations and legal procedure Each narrative describes circumstances leading up to a crime and its discovery the appearance of the crime scene and the body the apparent cause of death speculation about motives and premeditation and whether self defense was involved Detailed testimony is included from the accused and from witnesses family members and neighbors as well as summaries and opinions from local magistrates their coroners and other officials higher up the chain of judicial review Officials explain which law in the Qing dynasty legal code was violated which corresponding punishment was appropriate and whether the sentence was eligible for reduction These records began as reports from magistrates on homicide cases within their jurisdiction that were required by law to be tried first at the county level then reviewed by judicial officials at the prefectural provincial and national levels with each administrator adding his own observations to the file Each case was decided finally in Beijing in the name of the emperor if not by the monarch himself before sentences could be carried out and the records permanently filed All of the cases translated here are from the Qing imperial copies most of which are now housed in the First Historical Archives Beijing Whirligigs in China Anna Seward Pruitt,Nan F.
