Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples, 1996 As the first part of a set of volumes examining the evolution of the relationship among Aboriginal peoples and the Canadian government this volume studies that relationship from the earliest times to the present and examines policies that have affected that relationship The volume begins with a demographic profile of Canada's current Aboriginal population and then reviews the history of government Aboriginal relations in four stages before European contact the early contact and co operation period displacement and assimilation and the latest stage of negotiation and renewal of the relationship The volume then examines false assumptions involved in the government Aboriginal relationship and discusses four policies negatively affecting this relationship The Indian Act the residential schools policy the relocation of Aboriginal communities and the treatment of Aboriginal military veterans The volume ends with principles for building the foundations of a renewed relationship Looking Forward, Looking Back Jana Pohl, 2011 How is the life altering event of migration narrated for children especially if it was caused by Anti Semitism and poverty What of the country of origin is remembered and what is forgotten and what of the target country when the migration is imagined there a century later Looking Forward Looking Back examines today's representation of Jewish mass migration from Eastern Europe to America around the turn of the last century It explores the collective story that emerges when American authors look back at this exodus from an Eastern European home to a new one to be established in America Focusing on children's literature it investigates a wide range of texts including young adult literature as well as picture books and hence sheds light on the dynamics of the verbal and the visual in generating images of the self and other the familiar and the strange This book is of interest to scholars in the field of imagology children's literature cultural studies American studies Slavic studies and Jewish studies Austrian Capital Theory Peter Lewin, Nicolas Cachanosky, 2019-01-10 This Element presents a new framework for Austrian capital theory starting from the notion that capital is value Capital is the value attributed by the valuer at any moment in time to the combination of production goods and labor available for production Capital is the result obtained by calculating the current value of a business unit or business project that employs resources over time It is the result of a subjective entrepreneurial calculation process that relates the flow of consumptions goods to the value of the productive resources that will produce those consumptions goods The entrepreneur is a ubiquitous calculating presence In a review of the development of Austrian capital theory by Carl Menger Eugen von Böhm-Bawerk Ludwig von Mises Friedrich Hayek Ludwig Lachmann as well as recent contributions the Element incorporates the seminal contributions into the new framework in order to provide a more accessible perspective on Austrian capital theory Future Perspectives on Positive Psychology: A Research Agenda Marisa Salanova, Llewellyn Ellardus Van Zyl, 2022-07-29 Looking Back, Looking Forward John Pepper, 2017-08-28

Citizens Plus Alan C. Cairns, 2011-11-01 We are in the midst of a fundamental re evaluation of the desired relation of Aboriginal and non Aboriginal peoples to each other and of how the former are to be institutionally and constitutionally accommodated within Canada Words matter How we think about where we are and about the future goal of our relationship can confine us in an intellectual prison or liberate us from choices we will otherwise regret In Citizens Plus Alan Cairns unravels the historical record to clarify the current impasse in negotiations between Aboriginal peoples and the state He considers the assimilationist policy assumptions of the imperial era examines more recent government initiatives and analyzes the emergence of the nation to nation paradigm given massive support by the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples We are battered by contending visions he argues a revised assimilation policy that finds its support in the Canadian Alliance Party is countered by the nation to nation vision which frames our future as coexisting solitudes Citizens Plus stakes out a middle ground with its support for constitutional and institutional arrangements which will simultaneously recognize

Aboriginal difference and reinforce a solidarity which binds us together in common citizenship Essential reading for those in political science history Native studies public administration and law Citizens Plus will also appeal to the general public interested in one of the most important and complex issues on our agenda Selected as a BC Book for Everybody
