Short Stories Julia Shipman, 2015-08 These are stories told to me when I was a child One is about a boy who ran away from home One is a true story just after the Civil War Another is a true story told to my Grandmother by the main character in the story but many years later When it was bed time as a little kid in the 1950 s Grandma always told us stories These are just some of the stories I remembered Sadly Grandma has long since passed away but her stories remain with me Children and Youth During the Civil War Era James Alan Marten, 2012 This title places the history of children and youth in the context of the Civil War The book seeks a deeper investigation into the historical record by giving voice and context to their struggles and victories during this critical period in American history Goodly is Our Heritage Rashna B. Singh, 2004 Patterns of sublimation begin in childhood So does binary and hierarchical thinking The child must be trained to see in oppositions and on a scale of order So the story of nation and people race and culture begins as the bedtime story The author How else asks Rashna Singh do we explain the uncanny physical resemblance between Osama bin Laden and the evil Jaffar of Disney s motion picture Aladdin Singh provides a most persuasive argument for why these sentiments are both insidious and compelling and how they resonate to this day While she includes such classic examples as The Secret Garden Robinson Crusoe and the Babar series it is her inclusion of genuinely neglected fictions that lends her analyses a special richness In an engaging narrative style Singh demonstrates how constructions of character evolve into cultural imprints which encourage their young readers to choose the goodly side with little thought of badly repercussions
