Ballet and Opera in the Age of Giselle Marian Smith,2010-08-09 Marian Smith recaptures a rich period in French musical theater when ballet and opera were intimately connected Focusing on the age of Giselle at the Paris Op ra from the 1830s through the 1840s Smith offers an unprecedented look at the structural and thematic relationship between the two genres She argues that a deeper understanding of both ballet and opera and of nineteenth century theater going culture in general may be gained by examining them within the same framework instead of following the usual practice of telling their histories separately This handsomely illustrated book ultimately provides a new portrait of the Op ra during a period long celebrated for its box office successes in both genres Smith begins by showing how gestures were encoded in the musical language that composers used in ballet and in opera She moves on to a wide range of topics including the relationship between the gestures of the singers and the movements of the dancers and the distinction between dance that represents dancing entertainment staged within the story of the opera and dance that represents action Smith maintains that ballet pantomime and opera continued to rely on each other well into the nineteenth century even as they thrived independently The divorce between the two arts occurred little by little and may be traced through unlikely sources controversies in the press about the changing nature of ballet pantomime music shifting ideas about originality complaints about the ridiculousness of pantomime and a little known rehearsal score for Giselle Bankers' Directory of the United States and Canada ,1917 Berlioz D. Kern Holoman,1989 A captivating and sumptuously illustrated biography Berlioz is not only a complete account of the Romantic era composer but also an acute analysis of his compositions and a description of his work as a conductor and critic 139 halftones 3 maps 160 musical examples Rand McNally Bankers Directory and the Bankers Register with List of Attorneys ,1919 Music, Dance and Franco-Italian Cultural Exchange, C.1700 Don Fader,2021 This study stems from discoveries in a trove of documents belonging to Charles Henri de Lorraine prince de Vaud emont who served as governor of Milan under the Spanish crown from 1698 to 1706 These documents together with a mass of other sources letters diaries treatises libretti scores offer a vivid new picture of musical life in Paris and Milan as well as exchanges between France and Italy The book is both a patronage study and an examination of the contributions by and the difficulties facing musicians and dancers who worked across national and cultural boundaries Music Dance and Franco Italian Cultural Exchange c 1700 follows the careers of the prince and the French violinist and composer Michel Pignolet de Mont eclair In the context of a renewed fascination with Italian music in the 1690s Mont eclair made a name for himself in Paris as a pedagogue and composer who understood both national styles and blended them in a way that was successful on French terms Vaud emont hired Mont eclair to direct a French violin band and to compose dance music for a series of new operas that observers declared the best in Italy but are virtually unknown today These productions involved collaborations among a mixed company of French and Italian musicians dancers composers and librettists modeled on the practice of Turinese court operas The book is an account of the contributions of these figures to the cultural life of Paris Milan and other northern Italian states and to the creative mixing of musical styles operatic conventions and dance technique in France and Italy through the 1720s and beyond
