Buddhist-Christian Dialogue as Theological Exchange Ernest M. Valea, 2015-04-14 This book is intended to encourage the use of comparative theology in contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue as a new approach that would truly respect each religious tradition's uniqueness and make dialogue beneficial for all participants interested in a real theological exchange As a result of the impasse reached by the current theologies of religions exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism in formulating a constructive approach in dialogue this volume assesses the thought of the founding fathers of an academic Buddhist Christian dialogue in search of clues that would encourage a comparativist approach These founding fathers are considered to be three important representatives of the Kyoto School Kitaro Nishida Keiji Nishitani and Masao Abe and John Cobb an American process theologian The guiding line for assessing their views of dialogue is the concept of human perfection as it is expressed by the original traditions in Mahayana Buddhism and Orthodox Christianity Following Abe's methodology in dialogue an Orthodox contribution to comparative theology proposes a reciprocal enrichment of traditions not by syncretistic means but by providing a better understanding and even correction of one's own tradition when considering it in the light of the other while using internal resources for making the necessary corrections In Defense of Dharma Tessa J. Bartholomeusz, 2005-07-26 This is the first book to examine war and violence in Sri Lanka through the lens of cross-cultural studies on just war tradition and theory In a study that is textual historical and anthropological it is argued that the ongoing Sinhala Tamil conflict is in actual practice often justified by a resort to religious stories that allow for war when Buddhism is in peril Though Buddhism is commonly assumed to be a religion that never allows for war this study suggests otherwise thereby bringing Buddhism into the ethical dialogue on religion and war Without a realistic consideration of just war thinking in contemporary Sri Lanka it will remain impossible to understand the power of religion there to create

both peace and war
