Love In The Asylum A Novel:

Love in the Asylum Lisa Carey, 2005-04-12 From an author whose work has been called haunted and joyous and heartbreaking all at once Washington Post Book World comes an unforgettable novel of two lost souls who find love and salvation against all odds Can love save those who believe they are beyond redemption In and out of a swank north eastern rehab centre more than a dozen times in ten years Alba Elliot a 25 year old children s book writer and manic depressive believes she is a hopeless case But an unlikely relationship with Oscar a 30 year old drug addict whose recreation has cost him everything and a century old story hidden in the institution s library bring about changes that Alba could never have imagined Brought together by fate influenced by forces as beautiful and powerful as they are unforeseen Alba and Oscar will slowly rise from the ashes of despair and self destruction and in the midst of righting an old wrong begin to heal their battered spirits A beautifully crafted heartfelt tale of tragedy and triumph Lisa Carey s moving third novel is a testament to the surprising resilience of the human heart

Poetics of Love in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang, 2012-06-20 Considers the Arabic novel within the triangle of the nation state modernity and tradition Wen Chin Ouyang explores the development of the Arabic novel especially the ways in it engages with aesthetics ethics and politics in a cross cultural context and from a transnational perspective Taking love and desire as the central tropes the story of the Arabic novel is presented as a series of failed illegitimate love affairs all tainted by its suspicion of the legitimacy of the nation modernity and tradition and above all by its misgiving about its own propriety

Stones: A Novel of Art, Love, Intrigue and Magic in the South of France David A. Ross, 2010-04 A novel of art love intrigue and magic in the South of France A Love of Reading Robert Adams, 2011-01-14 Every year Robert Adams prepares a series of five reviews of contemporary novels to be delivered alone on a theatre stage to sold out audiences in Toronto and Montreal In A Love of Reading Adams has now gathered 18 of his most brilliant reviews from Jack Maggs by Peter Carey and The Poisonwood Bible by Barbara Kingsolver to A Fine Balance by Rohinton Mistry and Barney s Version by Mordecai Richler In them he skillfully interweaves a nimble and entertaining discussion of plot theme and characterization with fascinating historical biographical and literary context He is repeatedly drawn to the spectacle of less than perfect humans making their way in a hostile world and as a result a review by Robert Adams is almost always a hugely satisfying mix of rich pathos and abundant humour Famously Adams reads a book a day from which he selects only those novels that are truly extraordinary that have made him see some part of the world or some aspect of the human condition in a new light because for Adams the best books always take the reader on a journey with a destination very distant from the point of departure It should be not only a journey of discovery an exploration of the author s vision but also of risk By matching one s own vision to that of the author says Adams the reader enters an exciting negotiation to produce a new vision of his own This joint enterprise between reader and writer the shared risk and the wonder of discovery is the foundation of A Love of Reading For the last six years Robert Adams has presented an annual series of book reviews to sold out audiences Eighty per cent of Adams 3 000 subscribers in Toronto and Montreal renew for the following season This book is a selection of modern classics from a discriminating and entertaining guide Perfect for reading groups Quill Quire noting the jump in sales of any book reviewed by Adams has called the phenomenon The Adams Effect

P.O. Box Love Paola Calvetti,2025-10-16 A charming epistolary novel that chronicles the love story between Emma and Frederico former high school sweethearts who meet again thirty years later At Dreams Desires 50 year old Emma s quaint bookshop in Milan dedicated to romantic fiction the passionate bookseller serves coffee and tea to her customers and completes order slips in pen rather than using a computer One day she finds a mysterious handwritten note stuck between the pages of a novel The message is from her high school sweetheart Frederico who is now a successful architect in New York and whom she hasn t seen in thirty years When she finally meets Frederico again Emma is convinced that her life is about to turn into a romance novel an intercontinental fairy tale between Milan and New York between two post office boxes and two lovers that are separated by the Atlantic Ocean and half a life But Frederico is married and their epistolary romance punctuated by once a year sojourns on the island of Belle Ile seems to have no future Paola Calvetti s PO Box Love is an ode to old fashioned relationships the ones that last a lifetime old fashioned habits such as writing letters by hand in fountain pen and old fashioned notions such as politeness and the great lost art of conversation and will enchant readers of such perennial favorites as 84 Charing Cross Road by Helene Hanff and Same Time Next Year by Bernard Slade
