Penrose,2016-05-06 In Masculinity and Queer Desire in Spanish Enlightenment Literature Mehl Allan Penrose examines three distinct male figures each of which was represented as the Other in eighteenth and early nineteenth century Spanish literature The most common configuration of non normative men was the petimetre an effeminate Francophile male who figured a failed masculinity a dubious sexuality and an invasive French cultural presence Also inscribed within cultural discourse were the bujarr n or sodomite who participates in sexual relations with men and the Arcadian shepherd who expresses his desire for other males and who takes on agency as the voice of homoerotica Analyzing journalistic essays poetry and drama Penrose shows that Spanish authors employed queer images of men to engage debates about how males should appear speak and behave and whom they should love in order to be considered real Spaniards Penrose interrogates works by a wide range of writers including Luis Ca uelo Ram n de la Cruz and F lix Mar a de Samaniego arguing that the tropes created by these authors solidified the gender and sexual binary and defined and described what a queer man was in the Spanish collective imaginary Masculinity and Queer Desire engages with current cultural historical and theoretical scholarship to propose the notion that the idea of queerness in gender and sexuality based on identifiable criteria started in Spain long before the medical concept of the homosexual was created around 1870 The Publishers Weekly ,1996

Mucho Macho Chris Girman,2013-12-16 Quality research uniquely enhanced by the author's personal experience In one of the first books to examine machismo from the perspective of Latin American and Latino men Chris Girman relies on a compelling combination of ethnographic research and personal experience to explain how macho men like the author himself regulate and sustain same sex erotic encounters Girman incorporates his own sexual experiences with a variety of Latin men into the book infusing his writing with the unique perspective and vivid description that can only be related by someone who has lived the research he writes about While most of the literature on Latin American male same sex desire ignores the significance of the male body in its investigation this book shows why it is essential to focus on the macho male body and re evaluates so called machismo to forge a more nuanced description of Latin American masculinity Girman incorporates his own sexual experiences with a variety of Latin American men into the book infusing his writing with the unique perspective and vivid descriptions that can only be related by someone who has lived the research he writes about With this book you'll become familiar with various kinds of Latin American homosexual behavior Here's a glimpse at what you'll find inside Machismo Practice Theorists and Macho Performance summarizes previous research on Latin American male homo sexuality and defines the author's concept of machismo and Latin American masculinity. Head Hands Balls and Ass shows why focusing on the body as living matter rather than metaphor as is done in so many other books on sexuality is the ideal point of entry into the study of Latin American male homo sexuality and masculinity. This chapter focuses on specific regions of the macho body: head, hands, balls, and ass to explain how machismo actually promotes rather than denies sexual encounters between men. It also shows the importance of the Latin American family as a variable that structures the manner and frequency in which homo sexual encounters occur. The Dominican Tiguere and Hegemonic Masculinities takes a specific look at a very peculiar form of hegemonic masculinity relying on cunning more than strength to come out on top that is indigenous to the Dominican Republic. This chapter also tells the stories of five of the author's sexual encounters in that nation and discusses the tiguere style of masculine performance. Desire in a Costa Rican Prison analyzes the ways in which desire, power, and pleasure are constituted in the Latin American prison environment. Historical Representations of Same Sex Desire examines two short stories: El Matadero by Esteban Echeverría and Comienzo el Desfile by Reinaldo Arenas which highlight male eroticism as important concepts within discourses on national identity. Both stories conceptualize same sex desire within specific historical moments and demonstrate how male homo sexuality emerges and represents itself not in contrast to the dominant discourse but within that discourse itself. Familiar: Familial Voices by Latino Men Speak Out documents the voices of gay identified Latino men living in Central Texas: men who have come to love other Latin Black and Anglo men in the context of very full lives. These men reveal their conceptions of identity, race, performance, resistance, family, pleasure, desire, masculinity, silence, and place. Performing Matter's Masculinity: the Male Body and the Evocation of the non real defies the notion that written representations can capture the lived realities of Alfred W. Riggs was raised in Troy, Ohio where he first realized that he was not interested in leading an ordinary life. He graduated from Ohio University in Athens and has lived in Ohio, Texas, and California. He was at various times a math teacher, land surveyor, bum, writer, consumer advocate, photographer, civil engineer, sailor, harmonica player, and a cab driver. Some of these he did professionally and others he did out of the love of life. He passed away in San Francisco on March 1, 2002. David B. Stang, editor and Alfred's brother, is a semi-retired software engineer and is presently living in Columbus, Ohio, learning how to tune pianos.

Victims by Dorothy Uhnak, 2013-01-01

DIV There were plenty of witnesses but none of them called for help. DIV DIV In Queens in the middle of a brightly lit street a woman is savagely stabbed to death as people watch from their windows. The victim Anna Grace was a nurse devoted to helping others. But no one tried to help her on the last night of her life even as she screams. No one called 911 until a passing bus driver saw her crumpled at the foot of a lamppost. DIV DIV Homicide cop Miranda Torres is shocked by these callous witnesses and vows to bring the killer to justice. Post columnist and onetime Pulitzer winner Mike Stein views the senseless murder as a way to bring his career back from the brink. DIV DIV DIV Then a series of mob hits in the city takes the case in an astonishing new direction When Miranda discovers why Anna was murdered she must catch a killer who will soon hold her own life in his hands

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
