Jackson,2021-11-01 A Sportsman s Journey lyrically and spiritually connects readers with the natural world Donald C Jackson explores the rhythms and ways of hunting and fishing particularly in America s Deep South and in so doing helps readers understand and find meaning in why hunters and anglers venture far afield Journeying alongside the author readers will savor the magic of sunrises and the mystery of twilight Hearts will quicken as deer drift from shadows and ducks circle a woodland pond The ocean will challenge them as they fight large fish from the deck of a wave tossed boat far out at sea Restless winds will whisper messages during a spring squirrel hunt on a Mississippi farm Bird dogs old guns old friends and times shared with loved ones will remind anglers and hunters of those special shared memories Ancient forests and powerful rivers remind us of our fragile ephemeral state Quail hunts strengthen cherished relationships with companions Encounters with a mountain man will take us into a world thought to have vanished generations ago A gathering of anglers on a Gulf Coast fishing pier at night reminds us of those hidden communities that exist around us and are often unrecognized or perhaps even unknown Jackson reveals how all of us depend on the natural world and share very personal interactions with it and with each other This book reminds us that rediscovering resurrecting and celebrating these primal linkages are the real reasons we explore the world The Wood Duck and the Mandarin Lawton L. Shurtleff,Christopher Savage,1996-11-11 This is a story of conservation told through the natural histories of two of the world s most fascinating birds the Wood Duck of North America and the Mandarin of Asia The only two species in their genus Aix these Northern Wood Ducks are native to different continents but have long been kept together in captivity Now for the first time in history they are also flying side by side in the wild in a small area of northern California This rare circumstance has given Lawton L Shurtleff and Christopher Savage the opportunity to observe the Northern Wood Ducks close relationship and is the starting point of this informative and beautifully rendered book The opening chapters tell how the Wood Duck and the Mandarin came to inhabit the Pacific Flyway and explain their extraordinary similarities Subsequent chapters discuss the distinctive histories of the two species and describe the birds throughout the seasons in their native flyways The Mandarins place in Asian art and literature is the subject of Chapter Five The final chapter illuminates the successful work done to protect the North American Wood Duck which has made a remarkable recovery from near extinction and the beginning efforts to protect the Mandarin whose existence in East Asia is seriously threatened Stunning full color photographs by renowned wildlife photographers along with photographs by the authors capture the exquisite beauty of these much revered
