Your Torn Down Life Dr. Sylvia Black, PhD, 2020-08-22 There may have come a time in your life when you feel like you have lost your zest for life Because of all the hell and high water that you've been through it may seem as if you have lost your joy your peace you desire to go on It's very easy to fall apart because of all you have been through But today is a new day Take encouragement also from the vision of the valley of dry bones Jerusalem was totally annihilated and there was nothing left but dead bodies all over the city The city was destroyed and everybody in it was killed Now there was desolation hopelessness Materially it looked impossible to rebuild everything and everyone was destroyed But if you know God like I have gotten to know Him then you know God can do anything but fail God works best in situations where the human hand cannot He is with you in every battle I fight He uses trials and tribulations in situations and circumstances to bring about triumph and victory in the life of the believer God Gives Us A Spirit Of Strength And Power Through faith in Christ we are given a spirit of power love and discipline and for that reason we have nothing to fear We can hold onto his promises and be confident that he'll see us through even the darkest of days You will be countlessly blessed You will be prodigious in your wealth You will be boundless and unlimited in your health and any other areas that are dry in your life Don't give up on God and He won't give up on you Diary of the Reluctant Duchess Sharon K. Middleton, 2020-08-20 When Fancy sent Richard from Barbados she did not tell him her plans Richard arrives unexpectedly after she and Kirk go to Ireland Richard discovers she has adopted Kirk's daughter and he concludes she will never abandon Kirk. Brokenhearted Richard returns to the future before Fancy can tell him her marriage to Kirk is void. Richard's departure allows Kirk to woo Fancy again in earnest and they remarry. The couple sail to Bermuda where Kirk leaves Fancy and the children at Spring Haven to sail to Barbados. A hurricane destroys the Spring Haven house. Fancy takes the children to the mainland and on to the safety of McCarron's Corner. En route she learns Kirk's ship was destroyed in the hurricane and Kirk is believed to be dead. At McCarron's Corner Fancy manages to go forward in time where Richard finds her. She gives Richard another chance. They fall in love again, marry, and she writes a best-selling memoir which attracts unwanted attention. Will they survive when a stalker's dangerous obsession threatens to destroy their future?

My Brothers Call Me Bird Deatrice Nicia De'Lovely, Deatrice Nicia De'Lovely Williams, 2011-10-31 My Brothers Call Me Bird is a profoundly poetic flight through my psyche. Every poem parallels a journey either personal or witnessed along a detour. Nevertheless, my versatile rhyme style poetry speaks on what many consider taboo but unfortunately is very common in the urban communities. As a survivor of and advocate against several abuse types, I write to incite emotion, I write to provoke assertiveness, I write to encourage confidence, I write to speak out for those silenced by abuse, oppression, and recession. I write to expose, arouse, and inspire. Each chapter is named after a different avian species to illustrate my flights and destinations: Experience, appreciation, motivation, apprehension, rejection, courage, hostility, sensuality, and hood reality as you read what my eyes have seen. Much Love

Dead Woman Pickney Yvonne Shorter Brown, 2022-04-01 Dead Woman Pickney chronicles Yvonne Shorter Brown's life growing up in Jamaica between 1943 and 1965 and teaching in Canada from 1969. Told with stridency and humour, the stories include both personal experience and history. Taking up the haunting memories of childhood along with persistent racial marginalization of Black people both globally and in Canada, the author sets out to construct a narrative that at once explains her own origins in the former slave society of Jamaica and traces the outsider status of Africa and its peoples. The author's quest to understand the absence of her mother and her mother's people from her life is at the heart of the narrative. The author struggles through life to discover the identity of her mother in the face of silence from her father's brutal family. In this updated edition, she adds a coda finding mother constructed from archives, genealogy, letters, and journals. Initially published in 2010, this second edition includes expanded text and a foreword by Sonja Boon, author of What the Oceans Remember. Poisoned Alan

Bell, 2017-04-04 After years of prosecuting hard-core criminals, rising legal star Alan Bell took a private sector job in South Florida's newest skyscraper. Suddenly he suffered such bizarre medical symptoms doctors suspected he'd been poisoned by the Mafia. Bell's rapidly declining health forced him to flee his glamorous Miami life to a sterile bubble in the remote Arizona desert. As his career and marriage dissolved, Bell pursued medical treatments in a race against time, hoping to stay alive and raise his young daughter, his one desperate reason to keep going. He eventually discovered he wasn't poisoned by a criminal but by his office building. His search for a cure led him to discover the horrifying truth: his tragedy was just the tip of the iceberg Millions of people fall ill and die each year because of toxic chemical exposures without knowing they are at risk Stunned by what he discovered Bell chose to fight back turning his plight into an opportunity Despite his precarious health he began collaborating with scientists dedicated to raising awareness about this issue Soon he also found himself drawn back into the legal field teaming up with top lawyers fighting for those who had already fallen ill Both a riveting medical mystery and a cautionary tale this book puts a human face on the hidden truths behind toxic dangers assaulting us in our everyday environments and offers practical ways to protect ourselves and our children Scars to Pearls Lita M.

Worthington, 2018-09-04 So when facing a life threatening trial how do you refuel the transformation needed to replenish the balance in life itself What do you lean on trust in or hope in I am a recently retired OB GYN Infertility nurse practitioner of almost thirty years in the field and I experienced delivering a spectrum of diagnoses in my area of expertise There were the good news moments with joy success and cure But there will be moments we witness overwhelming pain and the devastating news of death The shoe is on the other foot now for me I am the patient with metastatic melanoma skin cancer and not the provider a very uncomfortable and humbling place for me Sometimes the biggest battle fought isn't the cancer but the emotional battle we suddenly find ourselves in We are not prepared for this emotional turmoil or how to deal with it The journey I experienced and now share with you had its difficulties filled with approximately fifty appointments two surgeries hospitalization and therapies but life continues If you have recently been diagnosed with cancer I know you are scared I certainly was Because in the beginning when you first hear the news you immediately wonder How is this all going to end The journey has only just begun and we are already wondering How it's all going to play out I know all the questions you are asking yourself for I am the patient now and my perspective has changed I can feel the uncertainty of your courage and strength to proceed through the demands of appointments diagnostic testing surgeries pain and treatments I know the tears you will wipe quietly away from your cheek in the middle of the night when you can't sleep or when you are simply all alone afraid in pain or discouraged I can feel your heart pounding so loud that certainly anyone standing next to you must hear it also Your mind is spinning with worry from all the what ifs What will help me succeed at alleviating the fear that is ever present and now sprinkled into my daily life As a lifelong believer in Christ a foundation of faith was laid long ago I was just a believer as some years were more inclusive of Christ Jesus than others But I never doubted there was a God I would learn how to respect love and nurture this new found relationship in the months ahead I chose to lean on trust in and hope on my faith and I began introducing a spiritual element into my new daily routine In the months of pain and challenges reaching for spiritual encouragement and journaling as the days weeks and months would pass I found myself in a relationship with my Creator He sat with me walked with me and became my companion when I was alone and tired Experiencing the joy with this new relationship was a gift to me from God But of course the medical provider in me led me to bring an educational element to my book It is not the number one cancer killer but it is the universally number one diagnosed cancer I had recognized the lack of awareness amongst my friends and family in regards to skin cancers and the serious threat they pose So I include many Medical Pearls which may be facts or a helpful hint to pay additional attention to For those who want to read about an amazing spiritual journey I include several Holy Spirit Moments which could be visions or occurrences in which only God could provide and explain And I share Spiritual Pearls which are my spiritual thoughts on scripture visions or dreams that occurred both past and present as it contributes to who I am In my most vulnerable moments my trust needed to lie somewhere other than myself I am very good at taking care of myself thank you very much Suddenly my life takes a turn and I better get ready for the uncharted course it will take One day at a time We all have a story within us This shall be my story
