Call to Duty a Personal Memoir of World War II Roger A. Howard,2010-10-13 All my life I grew up listening to my father tell stories of his life especially his wartime experiences I knew these stories had to be put into print for future generations to enjoy The events recounted here reflect the true voice of my father While reading the text I can picture a group of family and friends of all ages sitting around him captivated by his life s stories The favorites are always of the 78th Infantry Division and all the characters he fought with Now these stories will be told forever An Ace and His Angel

Herbert Brooks Hatch,2000-12-01 This story was written by Herbert Brooks Hatch Jr one of America s living Fighter Pilot Aces from World War II Hatch flew a P 38 with the 71st Fighter Squadron 1st Fighter Group out of Salsola Italy Except for a brief deployment to Corsice to cover the invasion of Southern France he flew his 59 missions out of Foggia 3 He earned the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with 11 Oak Leaf Clusters In his first book An Ace and His Angel Memoirs of a WWII Fighter Pilot Hatch writes of the heroes and hardships endured by veterans of the Army Air Force The Polish

Deportees of World War II Tadeusz Piotrowski,2015-09-17 Among the great tragedies that befell Poland during World War II was the forced deportation of its citizens by the Soviet Union during the first Soviet occupation of that country between 1939 and 1941 This is the story of that brutal Soviet ethnic cleansing campaign told in the words of some of the survivors It is an unforgettable human drama of excruciating martyrdom in the Gulag For example one witness reports A young woman who had given birth on the train threw herself and her newborn under the wheels of an approaching train Survivors also tell the story of events after the amnesty Our suffering is simply indescribable We have spent weeks now sleeping in lice infested dirty rags in train stations wrote the Milewski family Details are also given on the non European countries that extended a helping hand to the exiles in their hour of need Waves Astern E. Spurgeon Campbell,2004-11-29 An interesting story about an interesting man told in a most entertaining fashion A real page turner Dr Bob Allota coauthor The Last Voyage of the SS Henry Bacon In Waves Astern E Spurgeon Campbell recalls eight decades of adventures to exotic and sometimes isolated destinations while serving his country At 20 Campbell was a radio operator in the Merchant Marine during World War II later surviving enemy attacks and the sinking of the Henry Bacon whose cargo was a group of Norwegian refugees Campbell recalls the February night in a lifeboat in the Arctic filled with terrified refugees his efforts to send SOS signals in gale force winds and of their miraculous rescue Decades later he and the survivors were reunited when he was honored by the Norwegian government Campbell s odyssey includes Cold War episodes in Eniwetok and Thule Greenland and a 20 year career with Radio Free Europe Guarded by Angels Alard B. Ages,2007-06 As a young man Alard Ages survived Nazi occupied Holland and escaped at the age of 18 He eventually emigrated to Canada where he lives on the west coast of British Columbia For many years Alard has taken time away from his professional life as an oceanographer to lecture high school students about the effects of oil spills on the marine environment During these lectures students and teachers were eager to hear of Alard s experiences during WWII It is their enthusiasm that inspires this memoir Guarded by Angels It was not a guardian angel who had guided Alard to freedom The book is a tale of sympathetic countrymen of total strangers who advised him on routes to take and who courageously helped him through danger It is a tale of German guards who should have stopped and arrested him but who didn t It is a tale of courage and resistance through the eyes of a young man during some of the world s darkest hours

Pinky Wesley Hall,2005-02 Pinky A Memoir of WWII is the first of four volumes about a young man who couldn t wait to join the U S Navy and go to the Pacific In this volume T J Thiggen is sixteen when Japan bombed Pearl Harbor He agrees with his mother to complete the school year 1942 1943 if she will sign his enlistment papers He goes through boot camp at Farragut Idaho and is transferred to Shoemaker California to await orders to ship overseas On his eighteenth birthday he boards the SS Eugene Skinner for the South Pacific and after 23 days he arrived in New Caledonia There he attends a Fleet Radio School works for a time at the COMSOPAC Service Squadron and after almost a year on this island he finally gets a transfer to a wooden subchaser which is headed north into the War Zone There are five subchasers in Noumea Harbor being converted to LCC s landing craft communications and because they each have a Walt Disney cartoon character painted on their bridges they are nicknamed MacArthur s Donald Duck Navy This part of the story about five wooden subchasers ends just as T J becomes the second radio on the USS SC 995

The Untold Story of a Young Girl During WWII Anna Pasternak,2017-10-19 This book is an account of my childhood years six of which happened during WWII Most of the books of that period deal with the Holocaust and other atrocities perpetrated by Hitler and his henchmen in Europe While this tragedy was occurring in Europe mainly in Poland a different scenario was taking place thousands of miles away in the Taiga of Siberia both involving Polish Jews Soviet gulags are well known and so is Stalin s regime which finally collapsed in 1989 This is an account of my family and I s struggle for survival during that bloody period in history

Czajewski,2011 Before the year 1989 that is before the fall of Communism in Poland the Communist government ordered the destruction of any documents that could have implicated them in the persecution of people opposed to the Communist party The documents would have been proof of their ignominious actions Therefore they were taken away by the truckload from the archives and burned outside of the city limits My documents were destroyed in Bialystok as well After turning down a job with the Polish Secret Police they harassed me and blacklisted me so I was unable to work It was in Bialystok where my persecution was most severe Nevertheless most copies of my documents were preserved at the Ministry of Interior in Warsaw The decision was made to escape immediately from the place of danger and once again we took what we could Each of us like a flock of geese with my father in the lead slowly walked away from the river fortress toward the woods The fog slowly subsided When we reached a haystack my father announced that this would now be our home One night there came an announcement from an airplane with its engine turned off for a moment so as not to drown out words The announcement made in Polish was that everyone should leave this area because soon the war was going to be over An air raid followed and the entire area was bombed I read it and I was touched I finished reading Mr Henry Czajewski s extraordinary life testament The issues in the book are close to my heart because I know that it is not a work of his imagination but rather a poignant truth I shed tears when reading certain parts of this book and I was in awe of his enthusiasm optimism and sense of humor What a wonderful piece of work B F retired doctor of psychology Publisher s website <http://www.strategicpublishinggroup.com/title/InTheShadowOfMyGuardianAngel.html>
