Devotions of A Gerbil Traci Stead,2014-01-31 Sometimes I think I am a gerbil in dog s clothing I believe I am a dog I am desired longed for patiently waited for and loved At least I can tell myself that but perhaps I am a gerbil not really wanted a replacement fun for a while but sure to be returned Then God comes along Do you ever feel like a stray dog alone and frightened cowering in the cold corner of an animal shelter God scoops us up into his arms and carries us home from the shelter He washes us and gives us a name But life with the Master is new and difficult The Master s new rules sometimes make us look through the fence slats of His kingdom We dig holes and crawl back into the world God continues to whistle from his porch even while we chase cars and cats and dig through the neighbors trash Eventually we have to decide if we will leave our doggy lives behind and enjoy a relationship with the Master

Finding Voice Nancy Dean,2016-05-02 Finding Voice written by Nancy Dean with Natalie Danaher is a foundational book for elementary students and teachers that addresses close reading of complex text through understanding and practicing the elements of voice The book is a collection of classroom lessons that cover the tools authors use to shape voice and meaning diction detail imagery figurative language and tone Every voice lesson includes a quotation selected from a wide range of engaging fiction and nonfiction text two discussion questions an exercise that encourages students to practice what they have learned and discussion suggestions so that possible answers are at the teacher s fingertips The lessons will help students understand the elements of voice in what they read and encourage them to try out the elements of voice in their own writing The Finding Voice lessons are specifically designed for students in grades 3 to 6 These lessons provide focused examination and practice for a specific element of voice and take only 10 to 20 minutes of class time The lessons of Finding Voice Introductory Lessons to Teach Reading and Writing of Complex Text fit well with any literacy and language arts curriculum As students work with each element of voice they will improve their ability to critically analyze text Students will also learn to apply the elements of voice to their own writing creating a clear voice of their own
