Myself Among Others:

Myself Among Others George Wein, Nate Chinen, 2009-02-18 No one has had a better seat in the house than George Wein. The legendary impresario has known the most celebrated figures of music in general and jazz in particular from Duke Ellington to Ella Fitzgerald to Miles Davis to Frank Sinatra. As a founder of the Newport Jazz Festival, the Newport Folk Festival, and the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, Wein has brought a dazzling spectrum of musicians to millions of fans, forever changing the musical landscape. In this highly praised memoir, Wein looks back on his life and career, describing his unforgettable relationships, sometimes smooth, sometimes tempestuous, with the great musicians he has known. From what really happened when Charlie Mingus visited the White House to how Miles Davis and the ensemble that would eventually record the greatest jazz album of all time, Kind of Blue, came together at Wein's Storyville nightclub to the day at Newport when Bob Dylan first went electric, here are the personalities and forces that have shaped the past half century of popular music.

Other Me Antonio Almas, 2021-03-26 And then it came the time for silence. It had to come one day because too many words disorders the mind; too much talking exhausts your head, overwhelms your senses, and strays you from what's essential. I know that I attempted to run that I couldn't accept loneliness and the absence of noise. I struggled to keep myself among others, to be like them, to have lots of friends to go to, lots of parties and feel lots of joy, but that was not who I was. I was a tiny, quiet person who always wanted to be on their own, shut into their own world in silence, hidden inside their own brain. I never had the hang for being public, even though I had such ability for argumentation. When I first started in the political arts, I felt uncomfortable with all the lies, the need for constantly being under the sight of the people, under the scrutiny of others. I was never into being scrutinized. Not sure if it's for fear, although yes, I've always been afraid of everything, of being wimpy, of not being as good as the others. I always use others in a comparative way, after all, that's the way it is: we're always pointing out differences between ones and others, fighting to surpass the others instead of helping each other. In sum, a young one with inferiority complexes can only grow into an adult filled with insecurity, who, besides their obstinacy for an independent life and paying your own bills, has left behind a few fragilities which apparently weren't so evident though equally serious as serious as those of who could not be in charge of building a solid, stable life.

Mythical Me Richella Parham, 2019-10-22 Do you ever find yourself stuck in the comparison trap? Speaker and author Richella Parham knows what this feels like, often finding herself admiring one person's achievements, someone else's personality, another's skills, yet another's relationships or appearance. While there are no easy answers, Parham helps readers pick up practices that help us walk in the freedom of Christ with confidence in ourselves.

Born to Play Thomas P. Hustad, 2012-05-03 Jazz trombonist Jack Teagarden once referred to Ruby Braff as the Ivy League's Louis Armstrong. That legacy of great trumpet performance and recording is brought to readers in Thomas Hustad's Born to Play: The Ruby Braff Discography and Directory of Performances. Braff's uncompromising standards, musical taste, and creative imagination informed his consummate artistry.

in creating music beautifully played He achieved swiftly what few musicians accomplish in a lifetime by developing a unique and immediately recognizable style For a reminder of that we need but play any of the more than 150 released recordings on which he appears These records span a total of 54 years from 1949 to 2002 a feat almost unmatched in jazz recording This was five years longer than even Louis Armstrong Although prepared in discographical style capturing information about both commercial recordings and previously undocumented performances Born to Play serves as a biography of the artist detailing the path he paved as a performer and featuring personal recollections of his musical career with commentary from other figures Images over the course of his half century of playing fill out this comprehensive survey of Bruff's performing and recording career This bio discography of the man who jazz drumming legend Buddy Rich declared one of my favorite trumpeters and singing giant Tony Bennett described as my great friend who now holds the reigning position of the best cornet player in the world is sure to be of interest to jazz fans and scholars alike
