Myths Legends Customs In Greek R:

Myth, Legend, and Custom in the Old Testament Theodor Herzl Gaster,1975 Bulletin of the John Rylands Library John Rylands Library,1908 Canaanite Myths and Legends John C. Gibson,2004-07-01 Tablets of poetic mythological texts unearthed during the excavation of Ugarit have been edited and translated to shed new light on the religion and literature of the ancient world Bulletin of the John Rylands University Library of Manchester John Rylands University Library of Manchester,1908 Lords of the Scrolls: Literary Traditions in the Bible and Gospels Donald K. Sharpes,2005 Lords of the Scrolls analyzes ancient literary sources to show how biblical and gospel scribes borrowed and imitated themes from earlier literature to create heroic legends around Hebrew figures and Jesus Comparisons between the Epic of Gilgamesh Enuma Elish Canaanite Egyptian and Greek legends Homeric epics the histories of Herodotus and selected biblical and gospel passages reveal thematic and literary similarities Tracing literary classics from the birth of writing to the first millennium of the modern era this book demonstrates that Hebrew scribes used previous literature to establish a national identity and that gospel scribes borrowed heavily from Homer to create epic legends around the person of Jesus

Poetry in Fragments Christos Tsagalis,2017-09-11 Next to the Theogony and the Works and Days stands an entire corpus of fragmentary works attributed to the Boeotian poet Hesiod that has during the last thirty years attracted growing scholarly interest Whereas other studies have concentrated either on the interpretation of the best preserved work of this corpus the Catalogue of Women or have offered detailed commentaries this volume aims at bringing together studies focusing on generic and contextual factors pertaining to the various works of the Hesiodic corpus the Catalogue of Women included and the corpus afterlife in Rome and Byzantium The Myth of Genesis and Exodus and the Exclusion of Their African Origins Yosef Ben-Jochannan,2002 The second book in a 3 volume set this is a companion volume to African Origins of the Major Western Religions and The Need for a Black Bible An invaluable resource for anyone seeking to gain a better understanding of belief systems in the Western world The Flood Myths of Early China Mark Edward Lewis,2012-02-01 Early Chinese ideas about the construction of an ordered human space received narrative form in a set of stories dealing with the rescue of the world and its inhabitants from a universal flood This book demonstrates how early Chinese stories of the re creation of the world from a watery chaos provided principles underlying such fundamental units as the state lineage the married couple and even the human body These myths also supplied a charter for the major political and social institutions of Warring States 481 221 BC and early imperial 220 BC AD 220 China In some versions of the tales the flood was triggered by rebellion while other versions linked the taming of the flood with the creation of the institution of a lineage and still others linked the taming to the process in which the divided principles of the masculine and the feminine were joined in the married couple to produce an ordered household While availing themselves of earlier stories and of central religious rituals of the period these myths transformed earlier divinities or animal spirits into rulers or ministers and provided both etiologies and legitimation for the emerging political and social institutions that culminated in the creation of a unitary empire

Construction of Gender and Identity in Genesis Karalina Matskevich, 2019-01-24 Karalina Matskevich examines the structures that map out the construction of gendered and national identities in Genesis 2:3 and 12:36 Matskevich shows how the dominant Subject the androcentric ha adam and the ethnocentric Israel is perceived in relation to and over against the Other represented respectively as female and foreign Using the tools of narratology semiotics and psychoanalysis Matskevich highlights the contradiction inherent in the project of dominance through which the Subject seeks to suppress the transforming power of difference it relies on for its signification Thus in Genesis 2:3 ha adam can only emerge as a complex Subject in possession of knowledge with the help of woman the transforming Other to whom the narrator and Yahweh attributes both the agency and the blame Similarly the narratives of Genesis 12:36 show a conflicted attitude to places of alterity Egypt the fertile and seductive space that threatens annihilation and Haran the mother's land a complex metaphor for the feminine The construction of identity in these narratives largely relies on the symbolic fecundity of the Other
