Naked Being Of God Making Sense Of Love Mysticism:

The Naked Being of God Blair Reynolds, Patricia Heinicke, 2000 Using the experience of the Christian mystic as a focal point The Naked Being of God explores the tension between the idea of God as transcendent and unchanging and the idea of God as imminent and dynamic Selected texts from classical theology provide a backdrop for the mystical awareness which ultimately does not fit within the bounds of traditional assumptions Pseudo Dionysius Meister Eckhart and Marguerite Porete are the mystics examined The work uses process theology to address these paradoxes Holy Power, Holy Presence

Elizabeth Dreyer, 2007 Western theology is frequently criticized for not having a fully developed pneumatology According to these critics preoccupation with Christology and an excessive focus on the nature and unity of God have come at the expense of a full theology of the three persons While admitting that there is some truth to these criticisms Elizabeth Dreyer maintains that those who level them base their conclusions on a narrow range of texts and thus fail to establish a true neglect of the Holy Spirit Medieval authors offer a wealth of creative language and insight that speaks to the role of the Holy Spirit in contemporary spirituality and contributes to a renewed pneumatology for the twenty first century Book jacket

Passionate Spirituality Elizabeth Dreyer, 2005 Passionate Spirituality explores the roots and meanings of passion in Western culture and then examines how passion is expressed in the works of two medieval women mystics Hildegard of Bingen and Hadewijch of Brabant and in the lives of contemporary Christians seeking to deepen their own spiritual journeys Too often the term passion is associated only with steamy films sexual sin and emotional excess cutting off the breadth of its meaning and expression for positive good But the great mystics succeed precisely because they hold together both the affective and the intellectual aspects of the spiritual life in creative and convincing ways Their accounts of their mystical experience are important resources for information and understanding about how to talk about God more formally and for what it means to be passionately in love with God and the world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Marrying Jesus in Medieval and Early Modern Northern Europe Rabia

Gregory, 2016-09-17 The first full length study of the notion of marriage to Jesus in late medieval and early modern popular culture this book treats the transmission and transformation of ideas about this concept as a case study in the formation of religious belief and popular culture Marrying Jesus in Medieval and Early Modern Northern Europe provides a history of the dispersion of theology about the bride of Christ in the period between the twelfth and seventeenth centuries and explains how this metaphor initially devised for a religious elite became integral to the laity's pursuit of salvation Unlike recent publications on the bride of Christ which explore the gendering of sanctity or the poetics of religious eroticism this is a study of popular religion told through devotional media and other technologies of salvation Marrying Jesus argues against the heteronormative interpretation that brides of Christ should be female by reconstructing the cultural production of brides of Christ in late medieval Europe A central assertion of this book is that by the fourteenth century worldly sexually active brides of Christ both male and female were no longer aberrations Analyzing understudied vernacular sources from the late medieval period including sermons early printed books spiritual diaries letters songs and hagiographies Rabia Gregory shows how marrying Jesus was central to late medieval lay piety and how the chaste bride of Christ developed out of sixteenth century religious disputes 7 Deadly Sins Aviad M. Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Mysticism and Space Carmel Bendon Davis,2008 To understand both the theological and spatial parameters Davis considers the mystical experience as being not only an exclusively inner apprehension but also an embodied one that takes place in what she designates as mystical space In conception mystical space is analogous to the literary figure of the mise en abyme an impression of infinite regress that duplicates within all its layers the qualities of the larger initiating structure without Such a conception acknowledges that space has been widely conceptualized through the centuries and it allows both medieval and contemporary theories of space to be employed in examining the mystics lives and works
