Poet In New York Other Poems 1st Edition:

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1928 American first editions; bibliographic check list of the works ... Merle De Vore Johnson, 1929 Collected Poems Federico García Lorca, 2018-08-14 A revised edition of this major writer's complete poetical work And I who was walking with the earth at my waist saw two snowy eagles and a naked girl The one was the other and the girl was neither from Qasida of the Dark Doves Federico García Lorca was the most beloved poet of twentieth century Spain and one of the world's most influential modernist writers His work has long been admired for its passionate urgency and haunting evocation of sorrow and loss Perhaps more persistently than any writer of his time he sought to understand and accommodate the numinous sources of his inspiration Though he died at age thirty-eight he left behind a generous body of poetry drama musical arrangements and drawings which continue to surprise and inspire Christopher Maurer a leading García Lorca scholar and editor has brought together new and substantially revised translations by twelve poets and translators placed side by side with the Spanish originals The seminal volume Poet in New York is also included here in its entirety This is the most comprehensive collection in English of a poet who as Maurer writes in his illuminating introduction spoke unforgettably of all that most interests us the otherness of nature the demons of personal identity and artistic creation sex childhood and death Working-Class Women Poets in Victorian Britain Florence S. Boos, 2008-06-12 Though working class women in the nineteenth century included many accomplished and prolific poets their work has often been neglected by critics and readers in favour of comparable work by men Questioning the assumption that few poems by working class women had survived Florence Boos set out to discover supposedly lost works in libraries private collections and archives Her years of research resulted in this anthology Working Class Women Poets in Victorian Britain features poetry from a variety of women including an itinerant weaver a rural midwife a factory worker protesting industrialization and a blind Scottish poet who wrote in both the Scots dialect and English In addition to biographical information and contemporary reviews of the poets work the anthology also includes several photographs of the poets their environment and the journals in which their poems appeared International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Routledge Companion to Ecopoetics Julia Fiedorczuk, Mary Newell, Bernard Quetchenbach, Orchid Tierney, 2023-09-29 The Routledge Companion to Ecopoetics offers comprehensive coverage of the vital and growing movement of ecopoetics This volume begins with a general introduction to the field followed by six sections Perspectives broad overviews engaging fields such as biosemiosis kinship praxis and philosophical approaches Experiments formal innovations developed by poets in response to planetary crises Earth and Water explorations of poetic entanglement with planetary chemical and biological systems Waste Toxicity Precarity poetics addressing the effects of pollution and climate change Environmental Justice and Activism examinations of poetry as an engine of political and cultural change Region and Place an international array of traditional and contemporary geographically focused responses to ecosystems and environmental conditions and Subjectivities Affects Sexualities investigations of gender ethnicity and race as they intersect with ecological concerns Each section includes an overview and summary addressing the specific essays in the section These previously unpublished essays represent a wide variety of nationalities backgrounds perspectives and critical approaches exploring the interdisciplinary field of ecopoetics Contributions from leading scholars working across the globe make The Routledge Companion to Ecopoetics a landmark textbook and reference for a variety of researchers and students The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George Watson, Ian R. Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

The Publishers Weekly, 1906 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1968 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1993 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Lawrence Bruce Leigh, 2014-05-19 More than one hundred books have been written about T E Lawrence which explore the man and his deeds Just about every aspect and the many incarnations of his life his campaigns the geo politics of the Arab world and the influence of the West in it as Lawrence experienced them have been examined However nobody has gone in search of the mind of the man himself of his formation and his deep beliefs Nobody has asked the question What really is the source of the extraordinary power of this little man not only in terms of his incontestable qualities of leadership but also in regard to the sheer range of his activities and accomplishments Archaeologist writer guerilla warfare theorist and practitioner diplomat soldier and airman Lawrence also possessed an unusual ability to cross boundaries of class race culture and religion On top of this he demonstrated the ability to walk away from power and wealth and the accumulation of things to change his name more than once to begin again at the bottom of the heap in the RAF and stay there with only a few friends and books and a motorcycle Lawrence Warrior and Scholar is a quest It examines how a slight Oxford academic combined two of the most challenging paths a man can choose What drove and motivated this man How was it that he could apparently out shoot out ride and out starve the Bedouin How is it that the US military and others are still studying his famous account of the Arab Revolt and his 27 Articles Drawing upon what Lawrence and those who knew him wrote and did and said Bruce Leigh delves into Lawrence s personal philosophy and practices examining and analyzing his library and his close relationship to the world of classical scholarship and chivalry emphasizing that Lawrence s views were not abstractions only but intimately tied to his actions and deeds Ultimately the book argues that there is a message in Lawrence s writings and activities one that is against the grain of the world of self definition by consumption As one of his friends wrote The Man was great the message is greater First Editions of American Authors Forming the Library of Frank Maier of New York Frank Maier,1909 Book-prices Current ,1896 Literary World ,1870 Poetry Harriet Monroe,1925 Teaching British Women Writers, 1750-1900 Jeanne Moskal,Shannon R. Wooden,2005 The exuberant recovery from obscurity of scores of British women writers has prompted professors and publishers to revisit publication of women s writings New curricular inclusion of these sometimes quirky often passionate writers profoundly disrupts traditional pedagogical assumptions about what constitutes literature This book addresses this radically changed educational landscape offering practical proven teaching strategies for newly recovered writers both in special topics courses and in traditional teaching environments Moreover it addresses the institutional issues confronting feminist scholars who teach women writers in a variety of settings and the kinds of career altering effects the decision to teach this material can have on junior and senior scholars alike Collectively these essays argue that teaching noncanonical women writers invigorates the curriculum as a whole not only by introducing the voices of women writers but by incorporating new genres by asking new questions about readers assumptions and aesthetic values and by altering the power relations between teacher and student for the better American First Editions Merle De Vore Johnson,1929 The Poets of Ireland David James O'Donoghue,1892 Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey,2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey s Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature
