by pausing at various moments throughout the day to pray the Liturgy of the Hours Guide for Celebrating Liturgy of the Hours Children's Daily Prayer is a form of the Liturgy of the Hours adapted for children. It helps guide children in a daily service of communal prayer following the pattern of the Church's Morning Prayer. The heart of this annual resource is a simple order of prayer for each day and week that can be easily led by a child. Designed to fit seamlessly into your day, the entire prayer service takes no more than five to eight minutes. Daily Scripture texts have been carefully selected to help children walk through the Bible and become familiar with the great stories and themes of salvation history. Children's Daily Prayer 2023 through 2024 includes an order of prayer for each day and week of the school year from August 20, 2023, to June 28, 2024. Prayer services suitable for classroom and large gatherings for solemnities, feasts, and other special occasions. An About the Season section explaining each liturgical time, its character, and how to create conducive prayer environments. Send home pages connecting children's classroom and home lives. Instructions for parents on using the book with their children at home and how to set up a prayer space. More pronunciation guides have been added in the Opening sections and within the Scripture passages to accommodate young readers who will be leading prayer. Teachers, catechists, and parents can use Children's Daily Prayer to instill in children the habit of prayer and help form them in the heart of Christ's paschal mystery, the core and center of all liturgical prayer.

A Generous Presence Rochelle Melander, 2006-08-28. A Generous Presence is a collection of story-driven essays about the philosophy, tools, and work of coaching that is designed to support all spiritual leaders in deepening and enriching their personal and professional relationships. By practicing the coaching tools, Rochelle Melander offers spiritual leaders will be better equipped to guide those they work with toward accepting the past, creating a life vision, and setting goals for the future. Additionally, the tools provided in this book will help leaders understand themselves and enable them to strengthen their definitions for healthy living, raise their awareness about their own life and relationship skills, and improve their skills in relating to individuals and groups.

Redeeming the Time-With My Children Edwina Patterson, Are you confused about your responsibilities as a mother? Are there not enough hours in the day to get everything done? When you tuck your children into bed at night, do you have regrets? Knowing deep down in our hearts that children are gifts from God gives many of us reason to feel guilty about not making the most of our time with the children God gave us. We get so busy making school lunches, driving car pools, doing homework, and trying to keep our homes clean enough to find a path to the door that we don't know if we are coming or going. We are trying the best we know how to make the most of each day, yet we always seem to fall short of our goals. Most of us don't think of time with eternity in mind. We think of not having enough time to do all the things we feel we want to do. I just need more hours in the day, laments many an overburdened mother Redeeming the Time With My Children offers parents hope and practical suggestions from a woman who has walked in their shoes This book will encourage you to begin today to buy back wasted opportunities and redeem the time with your children
