God     Sacred Space Dan Kimball,2010-01-05 In a culture where teenagers are growing up inundated with images experiences and media that moves and changes at the speed of light it s no wonder many of them learn better when they re doing something not only listening to someone talk to them So rather than stand up front and only use words to teach about Jesus calling the disciples to be fishers of men o why not provide an experience that incorporates the idea of fishing Using simple things like an inflatable boat and goldfish crackers can turn the old storyo into something new that your students think of every time they snack on a goldfish cracker or see a boat It turns the lesson into an experience Sacred Space provides dozens of ideas to help students engage in scripture and apply the lesson to their own lives Whether you re looking to teach a biblical theme the life of Christ or a gospel passage or even when celebrating holidays you ll find step by step instructions to create the space and experience necessary to draw your students into the story Through art listening writing and multi sensory prayer stations your students will experience God s Word in a whole new way This is more than a toolbox for your ministry it s a holistic way to approach teaching and communicating God s Word Authors Dan Kimball and Lilly Lewin bring their years of experience developing these kinds of experiences in youth group settings and churches In addition to worship experiences on the life of Christ you ll find ideas for teaching on The life of David Women of the Bible The Sermon on the Mount Justice The Gospel of Luke Advent Christmas Lent Easter And more Use these ideas in your typical gathering to enhance the teaching and musical worship or develop these experiences into a special event or a new unique service without singing or teaching Inside you ll find everything you need except the actual supplies to create experiences that can transform the way your students encounter God and help them engage in and learn from the Bible in more meaningful ways 5

Walking the Stations Donald Heinz,2025-02-17 In a time when Catholic piety is often fixed on the Good Friday stations of the cross and evangelical piety is associated with an imaginary what would Jesus do and much of Protestant religion has slimmed Jesus down from the fully dimensioned Christology of the Gospels and contemporary Christianity misses a Christ who has moved into the neighborhood John 1 14 and fully engaged the world and its peoples and touring liberals tout how little a Christian actually needs to believe this book chooses fourteen episodes from Jesus entire life and makes them way stations on a pilgrimage on which we gather to meet Jesus in person share him in community and follow him to a fully realized discipleship Such way stations may recall the medieval imitation of Christ or the notion of a Christian pilgrimage during which we make the way by walking Historically pilgrimage is meant to evoke I want to be in that number Yet identifying these stations is fully congruent with contemporary New Testament scholarship whether liberal or historically orthodox The significance of this book is that it sets forth a process of adult Christian education today that is rich with all the dimensions of Jesus life from birth to death and resurrection with all the happenings in between And most important it turns adult Christian education into a compelling Bible study in community and one that attracts participation like walking a labyrinth Through such engagement it recovers for lively practice today the mostly forgotten medieval imitatio Christi and inserts this into the nearly forgotten but once vividly realized practice of pilgrimage overdue today as a way of imprinting the Christian walk onto the culture and onto individual believers and their communities Finally it follows contemporary Gospel scholarship back to the historical Jesus through visionary Holy Land tours or a modern walking the way stations that constitute Jesus own life and our immersion in it that would constitute true discipleship
