Turner,2015-08-01 Jesus words of indictment and judgment in the Gospel according to Matthew have fueled centuries of Christian anti Judaism But what did those words originally mean within Matthew s narrative David L Turner examines how Matthew has taken up Deuteronomic themes of prophetic rejection and judgment and woven them throughout the Gospel culminating in Matthew 23 32 Matthew was engaged in a heated intramural dispute with other Jewish groups Turner argues The legacy of Christian anti Jewish violence reflects a gross misunderstanding of Matthew by generations who have failed to recognize the author s worldview and allusions The Last Prophet Mosab Hassan Yousef,James Becket,2025-01-21 Death comes easily in the seventh century Arabian desert from hunger and thirst to the relentless sun to war and raiding tribes who take by force the scarce resources needed to survive In this harsh land the powerful city of Mecca is a beacon famous for its well which provides abundant life giving water and its great temple where pilgrims come to worship the totems of hundreds of gods It is here that the prophet Muhammad is born The Works of J. Reeve and L. Muggleton, the Two Last Prophets of the Only True God, Our Lord Jesus Christ. [Edited by J. and I. Frost.] John REEVE (Muggletonian, and MUGGLETON (Lodowick)),1832

The Making of the Last Prophet Gordon Darnell Newby, 2022-11-23 The sacred biography of Muhammad has shaped Muslims' perceptions of the place of Islam in the religious history of the world and located the Islamic founder and prophet as the last of God's messengers As Muslims established political control over ancient Jewish and Christian communities they also claimed hegemony over the panorama of biblical prophets and holy men In the eighth century the author of the first complete biography of Muhammad set out a plan for a history of the world that culminated with the advent of Muhammad and the religion of Islam The biography not only gave the details of Muhammad s life but also retold the stories of past prophets from an Islamic perspective The Making of the Last Prophet is an examination of the reshaping and retelling of the biblical past to form the image of Muhammad as the Seal of the prophets of God Through a translation of the reconstructed Arabic text the sources the form and uses of the eighth century biography are examined for the ways in which attitudes toward Muhammad were shaped in early Islam The work particularly underscores the interplay of Jewish Christian and other Near Eastern religious ideals in the formation of Islam s notions of prophethood

Anderson, 2008-07 This non academic author presents his key to opening James Joyce's infamously difficult and endlessly playful novel Finnegans Wake The key was fashioned in Kabbalah an ancient Jewish mystical tradition that as interpreted by Joyce champions independent individualism as the path to the highest spirituality Kabbalah images a universe excreted by the ultimate god a universe that is necessarily finite and limited that came with its own secondary god that is finite and limited the god presented in Genesis that issues blessing and curses designed to make mankind fearful and dependent the curse of Kabbalah Joyce laid this curse in his dream like Book of the Night in the elastic way that the latent or hidden content of a dream distorts the presentation of dream materials Acting like a black hole this curse pressures the main character Harold Chimpden Earwicker to fall to become fearful and dependent just like everyone else that is reduced to the mere initials HCE for Here Comes Everybody Joyce traces this curse from the myths in Genesis to the primal horde the first social organization of humans to the Oedipal Complex and to nation state warfare such as the Battle of Waterloo In a groundbreaking presentation Anderson deciphers word by word the first two chapters and part of the last chapter to show how this key opens the lock He shows for example how the joined ending and beginning of Joyce s wisdom book form the Hebrew word for curse and the ending shows confrontation rather than repression of fear of death as the key to life to your own wake
