M. Berens, Lewis Spence, 2020-12-17 The Ancient Near East is considered the cradle of civilization Mesopotamia is a historical region of Western Asia situated within the Tigris Euphrates river system Babylonia was an Amorite state in lower Mesopotamia where an empire was created out of the territories of the former kingdoms of Sumer and Akkad Assyria was a region on the Upper Tigris whose kings controlled a large kingdom at three different times in history covering most of the Middle East Ancient Egypt was a civilization of ancient North Africa concentrated along the lower reaches of the Nile River Around the 8th century BC the torch of civilization was taken from the Near East to ancient Greece and Rome Both Greek and Roman societies flourished and wielded great influence throughout much of Europe Northern Africa and Western Asia The rise of civilization corresponded with the institutional sponsorship of belief in gods supernatural forces and the afterlife Many civilizations adopted their own form of Polytheism and each of these nations developed their own mythologies which influenced the culture arts and literature of both Eastern and Western civilization Myths and Legends of Babylonia Assyria Myths and Legends of Ancient Egypt Mythology Myths and Legends of Ancient Greece and Rome Assyrian and Babylonian literature, selected translations, with intr. by R.F. Harper Robert Francis Harper,1901 Ancient Greek Love Magic Christopher A. FARAONE,Christopher A Faraone,2009-06-30 The ancient Greeks commonly resorted to magic spells to attract and keep lovers as numerous allusions in Greek literature and recently discovered voodoo dolls magical papyri gemstones and curse tablets attest Surveying and analyzing these various texts and artifacts Christopher Faraone reveals that gender is the crucial factor in understanding love spells There are he argues two distinct types of love magic the curselike charms used primarily by men to torture unwilling women with fiery and maddening passion until they surrender sexually and the binding spells and debilitating potions generally used by women to sedate angry or philandering husbands and make them more affectionate Faraone s lucid analysis of these spells also yields a number of insights about the construction of gender in antiquity for example the femininity of socially inferior males and the maleness of autonomous prostitutes Most significantly his findings challenge the widespread modern view that all Greek men considered women to be naturally lascivious Faraone reveals the existence of an alternate male understanding of the female as naturally moderate and chaste who uses love magic to pacify and control the naturally angry and passionate male This fascinating study of magical practices and their implications for perceptions of male and female sexuality offers an unusual look at ancient Greek religion and society Babylonian Magic and Sorcery Being "The Prayers of the Lifting of the Hand". Most, 2004-01-15 Anger is found everywhere in the ancient world starting with the very first word of the Iliad and continuing through all literary genres and every aspect of public and private life Yet it is only recently as a variety of disciplines start to devote attention to the history and nature of the emotions that Classicists ancient historians and ancient philosophers have begun to study anger in antiquity with the seriousness and attention it deserves This volume brings together a number of significant studies by authors from different disciplines and countries on literary philosophical medical and political aspects of ancient anger from Homer until the Roman Imperial Period It studies some of the most important ancient sources and provides a paradigmatic selection of approaches to them and should stimulate further research on this important subject in a number of fields The Religious Consciousness James Bissett Pratt, 1920 Current Thought , 1925 Babylonian magic and sorcery Leonard William King, 1896
