Du Bois on Religion William Edward Burghardt Du Bois, 2000 W E B Du Bois shaped 20th century America to an extent rivaled by few others The first black to receive a Ph D from Harvard he helped create the discipline of sociology and was one of the founders of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People NAACP Martin Luther King Jr called Du Bois a gifted discoverer of social truths But until now little academic attention has been paid to his insights on religion or to how religious commitments shaped his views of race rights and justice Phil Zuckerman here gathers together Du Bois's writings on religion and makes a compelling case for Du Bois to be recognized among the leading sociologists of religion. Du Bois on Religion includes selections from his well-known works such as The Souls of Black Folks to poems, prayers, stories, and speeches less widely available. Brief helpful introductions preface each of the twenty-six selections. Also, a general introduction traces Du Bois's move from church-attending Christian to relentless critic of religion and evaluates Du Bois's contributions to the study of religion. Du Bois on Religion is an important text for sociologists or for anyone interested in the history of race and religion in the United States. W. E. B. Du Bois, American Prophet Edward J. Blum, 2013-03-26 Pioneering historian, sociologist, editor, novelist, poet, and organizer W. E. B. Du Bois was one of the foremost African American intellectuals of the twentieth century. While Du Bois is remembered for his monumental contributions to scholarship and civil rights activism, the spiritual aspects of his work have been misunderstood, even negated. W. E. B. Du Bois, American Prophet, the first religious biography of this leader, illuminates the spirituality that is essential to understanding his efforts and achievements in the political and intellectual world. Often labeled an atheist, Du Bois was in fact deeply and creatively involved with religion. Historian Edward J. Blum reveals how spirituality was central to Du Bois's approach to Marxism, pan-Africanism, and nuclear disarmament; his support for black churches; and his reckoning of the spiritual wage of white supremacy. His writings, teachings, and prayers served as articles of faith for fellow activists of his day, from student book club members to Langston Hughes. A blend of history, sociology, literary criticism, and religious reflection in the model of Du Bois's best work, W. E. B. Du Bois, American Prophet recasts the life of this great visionary and intellectual for a new generation of scholars and activists. Honorable Mention 2007 Gustavus Myers Center Outstanding Book Awards. W. E. B. Du Bois Robert A. Wortham, 2022-10-25 W. E. B. Du Bois, Pioneer American Sociologist highlights the contributions of W. E. B. Du Bois on the field of sociology. Robert A. Wortham shines a light on Du Bois's role in shaping the scientific scope of the sociological perspective through his pioneering contributions in the areas of demography, urban and rural sociology, Southern Black Belt studies, and religion and society. This book provides a journey through the extensive sociological investigations of one of the key figures in the development of sociology in the United States and globally.

Between The Lines, Rev Ed, Collected here in one volume are historical and literary facts on all the hymns, tunes, and readings in Singing the Living Tradition, the Unitarian Universalist Association hymnbook. Plus suggestions for introducing and teaching new material to congregations, as well as a handy name index. An invaluable supplement to the UU music tradition for clergy, musicians, religious educators, and lay worship leaders. Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-16 Building on and going far beyond W. E. B. Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty-First Century and Du Bois's Dialectics, Reiland Rabaka's Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory. This book represents a climactic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois's rarely discussed dialectical thought, interdisciplinarity, intellectual history, making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe s ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academe

This book develops an understanding of prayer from a liberation theological perspective Praying with offers a distinctive way of praying that can help orient our prayers around the where we pray and with whom we pray as the locus of the body's and heart's theological praxis The book helps create language to pray with people and in situations we are not used to praying with it insists on praying amidst racism poverty violence and suffering it calls us to pray at night and at the end of the world when we are overcome by fear hurt climate disaster or economic impoverishment it ventures into interfaith prayer settings and it claims a sense of self that is not discrete encapsulated in its own thinking or feeling rather it understands the notion of the self as entangled with the whole earth and each sentient and nonsentient being Thus to pray with in this book is to take the location of one's prayer more seriously and individually and collectively to gain an awareness of our grounding and positionality therefore creating a theological structure that assumes both the listening of our own heart and the voices of everything around us

Liberating Visions Robert Michael Franklin, The four men spotlighted in this book together with other black religious and political leaders and communities have developed distinctive and significant traditions of moral thinking and social criticism Although the principal concern of these thinkers was social justice entailing significant institutional transformations in American society they were also attentive to the substantive content and formal character of the authentically free life and moral person Indeed most of them realized that authentic liberation required personal as well as social transformation Despite the significance and diversity of perspective in black theology however much of it does not adequately attend to the host of issues related to personal identity wholeness and fulfillment This general inattention to the personal dimension of the liberation enterprise has important consequences Failure to understand the person centered dimension of a broader inclusive societal transformation can lead to a disturbing paradox an optimism concerning the future of society existing alongside personal and familial disintegration despair and frustration Our method for correcting the perspectival imbalance in black theology is to identify the finest and most trusted resources and reflections on personal wholeness in the modern black community and to present them for revision reconsideration and possible reappropriation In this book I examine visions of human fulfillment and of the just society as presented by Booker T Washington 1856 1915 W E B Du Bois 1868 1963 Malcolm X 1925 1965 and Martin Luther King Jr 1929 1968 As I examined the ranks of post Reconstruction African American leaders I did so with an eye for those whose intellectual and political influence upon past and present Americans could be characterized as monumental
