The Later Years of Catherine De' Medici Edith Helen Sichel, 1908 To Think Christianly Charles E.

Cotherman, 2020-04-28 In this comprehensive history, Charles Cotherman traces the stories of notable study centers and networks as well as their influence on twentieth-century Christianity. Beginning with the innovations of L'Abri and Regent College, Cotherman sheds new light on these defining places in evangelicalism's life of the mind. Jewish Manuscripts, Prayers and Scholars Stefan C. Reif, 2024-12-30 The introduction offers some thoughts on each of the four areas covered by the essays and draws some broad conclusions. Studies of the history of manuscripts and of their acquisition demonstrate their impact on research into Jewish studies and on modern Judaism's understanding of itself. What emerges from liturgical studies here included is how important it is not only to analyze texts but also to identify overall historical, geographical, and cultural developments. Prayer may have been used as an educational tool and in turn influenced educational ideas and agendas. The liturgical themes that occur and recur over the centuries and especially in the talmudic and medieval periods reflect the ideological and theological notions that lie behind prayer texts and the variant forms that they take. Some common prayers are seen to include concepts of time, views of creation, attitudes to non-Jews, and definitions of Jewish peoplehood. The appreciations of some leading modern scholars of Jewish studies set them in their educational, historical, and religious contexts and indicate what they had in common as experts in scientific Jewish studies as well as what remained individual about their lives, research, publications, and achievements. Patterns for Prayer Volume 3 Alvin VanderGriend, 2024-06-04 After five minutes I run out of things to say. My prayers don't seem to go anywhere. My prayer life is boring. Ever felt that way?

Do you want your prayer life to be radically different? Patterns for Prayer can make the difference. It provides daily prayer suggestions in five categories: Personal, Family and Friends, The Church, The Kingdom, The Unsaved. Each suggestion is designed to move you to voice dynamic kingdom building prayers. Over time you will be motivated and encouraged to move beyond the suggested prayer items as you gain confidence. Soon prayer will become an enjoyable habit as you learn to release God's power on your world. There are 3 volumes to the Patterns for Prayer series. Each volume covers a 4 month period. Volume 3 has daily prayer points for the months of September-December.

Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2003. Explore pastoral strategies for dealing with mental health problems. Mental health is increasingly being recognized as an important issue in later life. This valuable book will help you examine this dimension of aging in the context of pastoral, spiritual, and cultural issues. It explores the relationship between mental health, spirituality, and religion in later life, including the search for meaning, cultural issues, spiritual issues, depression, dementia, and issues of suicide in older people. The first part of Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life focuses on theology, ethics, and cultural issues in mental health and aging. The second part addresses issues of multidisciplinary practice, including a challenging chapter written by a woman with early onset dementia, Alzheimer's, and other chapters that present perspectives on the uses and meanings of ritual and symbolism in mental health and pastoral approaches to care. Part one of Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life deals with issues of theology, culture, and mental health in later life, focusing on the importance of a richly textured understanding of personhood as a prerequisite for constructing a picture of late life mental health in the context of theology, the relationship between culture, spirituality, and meaning for older immigrants, and their effects on mental health, the adverse effects of a mental health system that reflects only the dominant culture of a society, leaving minority cultures vulnerable to misdiagnosis and inappropriate treatments that can do more harm than good, a wholistic picture of aging that moves beyond the biomedical paradigm and demonstrates the power and potential of the human spirit in adjusting to and moving beyond suffering. Part two of this valuable book addresses issues of concern to practitioners in mental health and spirituality for the aging, including disruptive behavior among nursing home residents and common practices that fail to identify its causes or address the problem, how some staff-resident interactions can produce suffering for all concerned, with case study outlines that illustrate the point, memory loss and its effect on spirituality, self-worth, and the faith community, pastoral care for people suffering with dementia, with practical information on helping them to make use of the power of prayer and to deal with loneliness, fear, and disempowerment, an insightful look at a recent major study of residents in aged care facilities in Australia that explores the link between depression and spirituality, risk and protective factors associated with suicide in later life, and the treatment of depression, pastoral interventions for depression and dementia.
