Praying With The English Hymn Writers:

Praying with the English Hymn Writers, 1989 Dudley-Smith, 1990-02-01 Praying With the English Hymn Writers Timothy Watts, 2014-03-10 Much like the book of Revelation Joel L. Watts Praying in God's Theater aims to pull readers into a deeper spirituality to confront the daily struggles of Christian life. Drawing from the rich well of Christian mystics and theologians from across the ecumenical experience Watts uses the Apocalypse to build a series of prayers and devotions aimed at increasing what he identifies as the contemplative unity and the certain unity between the individual and Christ. He urges a radical vision of the prayer and the sacrament of the Eucharist. Each chapter of Revelation is considered explored and finally used as a basis to draft prayers. Added to this is an application commentary that explores ancient liturgical practices similar to the scenes in Revelation while looking at Revelation in a mystical manner. Watts offers Revelation as an early liturgy using this proposition as a catalyst for building prayers and a vision of life based on the Eucharist as the emblem of how we are to approach God. What emerges is a profound view on how we envision Scripture prayer and the book of Revelation. Praying Twice Brian Wren, 2000-06-01 In this in depth look at hymns Brian Wren explores the theological significance of congregational song asks how music has meaning for its singers and considers the importance of contemporary worship music. He argues that a hymn is a complex art form deserving of recognition and study for its contributions to worship education and pastoral care. Magnificent Prayer Nick Harrison, 2010-05-29 Have you ever sensed that you've seen just the foothills of what prayer is about? Do you long for more? Magnificent Prayer points you toward the heights of communion with God. Drawing insights from classic and contemporary pioneers of prayer Nick Harrison guides you on a year long devotional course of discovery application and growth.
