Pre Raphaelites And Their Circle:

The Pre-Raphaelites and Their Circle Cecil Y. Lang, 2014-05-16 This useful volume presents the major works of the five leading Pre Raphaelite poets Foremost in the collection and included in their entirety are D G Rossetti's The House of Life C G Rossetti's Monna Innominata William Morris's Defence of Guenevere Swinburne's Atalanta in Calydon and Meredith's Modern Love Complementing these major poems is a fine generous selection of the poets shorter pieces that are typical of their work as a whole For this second edition Cecil Lang has substituted two early Swinburne poems The Leper and Anactoria for Fitzgerald's The Rubiy t of Omar Khayy m These poems which the editor describes as shocking show a new aspect of Swinburne not discussed previously Lang's Introduction describes briefly the founding of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood discusses each of the Pre Raphaelite poets both individually and in relation to the others and grapples with the questions of definition of Pre Raphaelitism and the similarities between its painting and poetry The book is appropriately illustrated with thirty two works by D G Rossetti John Ruskin William H Hunt and other Pre Raphaelite artists This is the only anthology available that provides a representative selection of the work of these important poets It will be indispensable to students of Victorian poetry and appreciated by readers interested in the Pre Raphaelites

The group of young painters and writers who coalesced into the Pre Raphaelite movement in the middle years of the nineteenth century became hugely influential in the development not only of literature and painting but also more generally of art and design. Though their reputation has fluctuated over the years their achievements are now recognised and their style enjoyed and studied widely. This volume explores the lives and works of the central figures in the group among others the Rossettis William Holman Hunt John Everett Millais Ford Madox Brown William Morris and Edward Burne Jones. This is the first book to provide a general introduction to the Pre Raphaelite movement that integrates its literary and visual art forms. The Companion explains what made the Pre Raphaelite style unique in painting poetry drawing and prose.

Collecting the Pre-Raphaelites Margaretta Frederick Watson, 2018-12-17 First published in 1997 and written by leading scholars of the day these fifteen essays examine aspects of the reception and collecting of Pre Raphaelite Art the social and cultural context in which the work was favoured and acquired. Two major collections provide the focus for the investigation that of the Birmingham City Museums and Art Gallery in the United Kingdom and that of the American Samuel Bancroft Jr now part of the Delaware Art Museum. The study of these two collections both formed in the late 1890 places Pre Raphaelite Art at nexus of contemporary cultural issues that touched the lives of both the city council intent on establishing a public gallery of national importance and a wealthy American businessman indulging a private passion for the work of these artists. The contributors approach the issue in a variety of ways. These include the study of the ambitions and self perception of collectors of the period an analysis of the impact of John Ruskin's campaign to establish Pre Raphaelite painting as the Art of England and its impact on notions of civic and national identity the examination of individual painting in relation to such issues as the portrayal of women the nude and of religious subjects and the study of the Victorian preoccupation with Renaissance Italy and the attempt by Ruskin Charles Fairfax Murray advisor to the two collections and the Grosvenor Gallery to proclaim the Pre Raphaelite artists as the true inheritors of the genius of Renaissance Italian artists. These essays were first presented at a symposium held at the Delaware Art Museum during the exhibition there of the paintings of Birmingham City Museums and Art Gallery.
