Converse in the Spirit Kevin Fischer, 2004 Underlining the importance to both of a living creative and spiritual tradition Converse in the Spirit argues that the relationship between Blake and Boehme was a meeting of like minds that transcended place and time that each regarded himself as part of a community of vision and aspiration and believed that any predominant form of thought and understanding was only partial Through this Boehme is used to illuminate the more esoteric aspects of Blake and Blake those of Boehme Their writings are not a simple or direct description on the movements of divinity nor of what divinity is or is not but a medium for approaching it and for participating in the creation of the sacred the giving of personal individual form to the divine Jacob Boehme British Museum.
