Preach Paul:

Preaching Paul Dr. Brad R. Braxton, 2010-08-01 Helpful and insightful strategies for preaching from the writings of Paul Few biblical figures are more compelling to preachers than the apostle Paul The story of his dramatic conversion on the road to Damascus is a favorite example of the way that God turns lives around His writings contain the earliest witness we have to the Christian gospel His message of God's offer of grace in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is deeply appealing So why is it that when it comes time to choose a text for this Sunday's sermon preachers so often choose something other than Paul When Brad Braxton asked himself that question he realized that preachers are often daunted by the size and complexity of the Pauline corpus Drawing on his expertise as a New Testament scholar and homiletics professor as well as on his experience as a pastor Braxton offers the reader tools with which to wrestle more effectively with the complex yet essential message of Paul Eschewing either a solely historical approach or a completely spiritual one the author brings the two together to explore the meaning of Paul's message in its original context as well as its contemporary application Written with imagination and depth of understanding this book is for anyone who wishes to know Paul better and to preach from his letters more effectively Paul's Theology of Preaching

Duane Litfin, 2015-06-22 Duane Litfin former president of Wheaton College explores how Paul's theology of preaching can inform the church's preaching today Through a detailed study of 1 Corinthians 1:4 Litfin shows how Paul's method of proclamation differed from Greco-Roman rhetoric and how Pauline preaching can be a model for the contemporary preaching task Preach the Word Stephen Oliver Stout, 2014-12-09 At some time or another every preacher has entered the pulpit wondering What shall I preach This study finds the answer in the preaching charge of 2 Timothy 4:1-5 summarized in the command Preach the Word In this careful examination of the preaching ministry of Paul as recorded in his letters and sermons in the book of Acts a Pauline theology of preaching emerges What this work discovers is that the governing activity of the ministry of the Apostle Paul is the verbal proclamation of the gospel of Christ All other activities in his ministry are subservient to this overriding concern and they find meaning only if preaching is primary That being the case this book takes seriously the words of Paul when he encourages future preachers to follow his teaching conduct and purpose 2 Tim 3:10 offering Paul as the model for the Christian preacher As readers will discover anyone who desires to preach biblically should seek to preach like Paul and the way to do that is to Preach the Word

Choosing to Preach Kenton C. Anderson, 2009-05-26 Today traditional forms of preaching are being scrutinized and challenged The biblical sermon is not immune to the pressure to evolve or even fall by the wayside leaving pastors and seminary students confused over how best to communicate to today's listeners In this forward-looking textbook Kenton Anderson delivers a strong call to current and future ministers to indeed choose to preach biblical sermons despite the obstacles to doing so While preaching itself is non-negotiable the exact form it takes can be much more flexible allowing people to hear from God as they hear his Word preached Rather than presenting one model or process for preparing a sermon Anderson explains several available options As you discern your message from the Bible will you begin with the text deductive or with the listener inductive Will you focus on the idea cognitive or the image affective The choices you make lead to five possible sermon structures DECLARATIVE make an argument PRAGMATIC solve a mystery NARRATIVE tell a story VISIONARY paint a picture INTEGRATIVE sing a song Each model is described in detail and related to well known contemporary preachers including John MacArthur Rick Warren Eugene Lowry and Rob Bell This book equips you with a variety of tools for your preaching tool kit A CD ROM with additional helpful resources is included as well as discussion questions and practical exercises

Pitfalls in Preaching Richard Eslinger, 1996 Richard Eslinger discusses with insight humor and concision what he sees as the most critical pitfalls in the various contexts of preaching and offers practical strategies for avoiding them

First Corinthians Bible Commentary - a Bible commentary on First Corinthians, This verse by verse commentary on First Corinthians offers a thorough but very understandable commentary on the entirety of Paul's letter to the Corinthians Since the First Corinthians letter touches on a number of different subjects this volume also offers some special studies to more fully explore what the Bible says on additional topics like civil government the role of women in the church spiritual gifts etc If you want to have a better understanding of First Corinthians this commentary will help you Here is a small sample of the text Introduction to First Corinthians 13 Some consider 1 Cor 13 the love chapter of the Bible or a parenthetical description of love but this chapter is actually an integral part of Paul's discussion about spiritual gifts Since the Corinthians were rude jealous and boastful it was necessary for them to go beyond their present pursuit To the apostle the development of the character of the person was superior to the exercise of the gift His contrasts chap 13 are clear gifts without love vs gifts with love and the permanence of love vs the temporal nature of gifts Gromacki p 159 Stated another way verses 1-3 affirm that spiritual gifts were worthless without love verses 4-7 affirm that love was superior to the gifts and verses 8-13 assert that spiritual gifts were temporal but love abides Although 1 Cor 13 may seem familiar to many this chapter is often one of the most misunderstood parts of the New Testament The Corinthians elevation of spiritual gifts over love is seen in places such as 12:13-25 14:27-33 40 It is also found by contrasting the qualities in 1 Cor 13 with other sections of this epistle For instance love suffers long 13:4 but tongue speakers at Corinth were impatient 14:27-28 Love does not envy 13:4 but the Corinthians envied the gifts of others chapter 12 Love is not puffed up 13:4 but tongue speakers were proud compare 13:1 Love causes people to act in a kind and orderly way but some of the Corinthians behavior was disorderly 14:23-40 Love is not unseemly but the Corinthians were at risk of unseemly behavior in their families 1 Cor 7:36 as well as their Sunday assemblies 1 Cor 11:2-16 17-34 Agape love does not seek its own 13:5 but these Christians were seeking their own see 1 Cor 8 and the discussion about idol meat Love keeps people from rejoicing in evil 13:6 but the Corinthians rejoiced in evil 1 Cor 5:2-6 There were various things that provoked these brethren 13:5 and it seems they were keeping a record of evil 1 Cor 13:5 It was time for the members of this congregation to show some spiritual maturity and demonstrate the type of

Christensen,2023-05-26 I am a pastor I preach Doesn t that make me a pastoral preacher Not necessarily Many preach missional rather than pastoral sermons designed to appeal to the unchurched not the church The popularity of regional churches and the global reach of the internet allow preachers to focus their sermons on people they do not know and market a message to an audience they never see Evangelical leaders produce many resources on attractional preaching but who is developing a vision for pastoral preaching David Christensen draws on years of experience to develop a philosophy of pastoral preaching He writes Social media changes the way we preach More and more pastors are preaching clickbait sermons These are sermons designed to get clicks or attract interest rather than teach truth We want catchy titles and clever
