Preach The Gospel A Textbook For Homiletics:

Preach the Gospel Joel Gerlach, Richard D. Balge, 1982-01-01 The Practices of Christian Preaching Jared E. Alcántara, 2019-09-17 Leading homiletician Jared Alcántara offers a practice centered collaborative technologically innovative next generation introductory preaching textbook The book breaks new ground by adopting a practice based approach to teaching preaching and by using innovative technological delivery to enhance the educational experience of learners Alcántara introduces the basics of Christian preaching and emphasizes the skills preachers must cultivate throughout their lives He shows that preachers can learn effective preaching by paying keen attention to five key competencies conviction context clarity concreteness and creativity Featuring the perspectives of a diverse team of collaborators The Practices of Christian Preaching is designed to prepare effective communicators for the church's multicultural future Call outs in the book direct readers to a companion website for further information or practice The online resources include audio and video sermons video responses from the author and contributions from collaborators enabling Alcántara to coach students by showing them instead of just telling them A Spanish language edition is also available Introduction to Homiletics Donald E. Demaray, 1978 The posture of the book is evangelical that without apology The role of the sovereign God is indicated at the very outset in the discussion on the call to preach The central place of Scripture is assumed throughout as is personal religious experience An attempt is also made to bring together the old and the new Classical homiletics and rhetoric still claim their ancient hold on God's men and a changing world with new communication perspectives demands our careful attention Preface A Treatise on Homiletics Daniel Parish Kidder, 1866 A Little Book for New Preachers Matthew D. Kim, 2020-01-14 One of the central tasks of pastoral ministry is preaching the Word of God Yet those who are called to ministry may feel unprepared unable or unwilling to step into this role In this brief introduction to homiletics seasoned preacher Matthew Kim provides proven insight and guidance about the importance and history of preaching the characteristics of faithful preaching and the personal habits of a faithful preacher Choosing to Preach Kenton C. Anderson, 2009-05-26 Today traditional forms of preaching are being scrutinized and challenged The biblical sermon is not immune to the pressure to evolve or even fall by the wayside leaving pastors and seminary students confused over how best to communicate to today's listeners In this forward looking textbook Kenton Anderson delivers a strong call to current and future ministers to indeed choose to preach biblical sermons despite the obstacles to doing so While preaching itself is non negotiable the exact form it takes can be much more flexible allowing people to hear from God as they hear his Word preached Rather than presenting one model or process for preparing a sermon Anderson explains several available options As you discern your message from the Bible will you begin with the text deductive or with the listener inductive Will you focus on the idea cognitive or the image affective The choices you make lead to five possible sermon structures DECLARATIVE make an argument PRAGMATIC solve a mystery NARRATIVE tell a story VISIONARY paint a picture

INTEGRATIVE sing a song Each model is described in detail and related to well known contemporary preachers including John MacArthur Rick Warren Eugene Lowry and Rob Bell This book equips you with a variety of tools for your preaching tool kit A CD ROM with additional helpful resources is included as well as discussion questions and practical exercises

Introduction to Homiletics Franklin Hutabarat,2021-05-18 This book introduces what Homiletics is all about It explores the steps of making sermons personal preparation styles of preaching etc This is good for University students who are preparing their way to becoming pastors in God s vineyard

A Manual for Preaching Abraham Kuruvilla,2019-10-15 Abraham Kuruvilla s A Vision for Preaching offered an integrated biblical and theological vision for preaching A Manual for Preaching addresses the practical and perennial issue of how to move from the biblical text to an effective sermon The author a well respected teacher of preachers shows how to discern the text s theological meaning and let that meaning shape the development of the sermon Clearly written and illustrated with Old Testament and New Testament examples the book helps preachers negotiate larger swaths of Scripture and includes two annotated sermon manuscripts from Kuruvilla

Preaching with Purpose Jay E. Adams,2015-04-14 The amazing lack of concern for purpose among homileticians and preachers has spawned a brood of preachers who are dull lifeless abstract and impersonal it has obscured truth hindered joyous Christian living destroyed dedication and initiative and stifled service for Christ Jay Adams from the book Preaching needs to become purposeful says Jay Adams because purposeless preaching is deadly This book was written to help preachers and students discover the purpose of preaching has and the ways that the Scriptures inform and direct the preaching task Preaching with Purpose like the many other books of Jay Adams speaks clearly and forcefully to the issue Having read this book both students and experienced preachers will be unable to ignore the urgent task of purposeful preaching And the people of God will be the better for it

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen,2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Contributors include Ronald J Allen Professor of Preaching and Gospels and Letters at Christian Theological Seminary John S McClure Charles G Finney Professor of Preaching and Worship at Vanderbilt Divinity School Alyce M McKenzie George W and Nell Ayers Le Van Professor of Preaching and Worship at Perkins School of Theology Southern

Methodist University Michael Pasquarello III Granger E and Anna A Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary Luke A Powery Dean of the Chapel and Associate Professor of the Practice of Homiletics at Duke University Teresa Stricklen Eisenlohr Ph D Associate for Worship Office of Theology and Worship at the Presbyterian Church U S A

Homiletics and Hermeneutics Scott M. Gibson, Matthew D. Kim, 2018-12-04 Scott Gibson and Matthew Kim both experienced preachers and teachers have brought together four preaching experts Bryan Chapell Kenneth Langley Abraham Kuruvilla and Paul Scott Wilson to present and defend their approaches to homiletics Reflecting current streams of thought in homiletics the book offers a robust discussion of theological and hermeneutical approaches to preaching and encourages pastors and ministry students to learn about preaching from other theological traditions It also includes discussion questions for direct application to one s preaching

The Web of Preaching Richard L. Eslinger, 2002-08-01 Preaching is not as simple as it may appear The preacher today is confronted with a dizzying array of homiletic methods and approaches each holding important insights into how to proclaim the Good News While pastors wish to learn from these different ways of preaching they often do not know where to begin Who are the best representatives of a given approach How do the different methods relate to one another How has the preaching scene changed in recent years In The Web of Preaching Richard Eslinger addresses these and other questions about contemporary approaches to preaching Surveying the most important current theories of preaching he argues that no homiletic method can be understood on its own The different schools of thought on preaching all intersect at such common points as Scripture narrative and the role of preaching in worship A strength in one compensates for a weakness in another and seen together they form one comprehensive web of preaching This book is a follow up to Eslinger s earlier A New Hearing which has been a standard text in preaching courses since its publication in 1987

Homiletics Karl Barth, 1991-01-01 In this complete and valuable version of his Homiletics renowned theologian Karl Barth s offers his thoughts on sermon preparation including his understanding of the way in which the preacher should interpret scripture Translated by Donald E Daniels and renowned Barth translator Geoffrey W Bromiley this book presents lecture materials from seminars in Bonn from 1932 to 1933

The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter s Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try

Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice If You Want to Preach Don DeWelt,1957

The Four Pages of the Sermon, Revised and Updated Paul Scott Wilson,2018-09-18 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it author Paul Scott Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two This approach is about preaching the gospel in nearly any sermonic form Wilson teaches the what why and how of sermon construction all rooted in a theology of the Word This completely revised edition guides readers through the sermon process step by step with the aim of composing sermons that challenge and provide hope by focusing on God more closely than on humans It has been largely rewritten to include an assessment of where preaching is today in light of propositional preaching the New Homiletic African American preaching the effect of the internet and use of technology A chapter on exegesis has been added plus new focus on the importance of preaching to a felt need the need for proclamation in addition to teaching and developing tools to ensure sermon excellence New sermon examples have been added along with a section that responds to critics and looks to the future

A Theology of Preaching Richard Lischer,2001-06-08 Richard Lischer s book is a stirring affirmation of preaching s importance as a major enterprise in its own right It is he writes a theological preface whose aim is to show how theology informs preaching and how preaching as a kerygmatic oral practical activity informs theology and brings it to its final form of expression Dr Lischer points to the historically negative results of preaching s exclusion from theology and then shows the benefits derived from the proper interaction of the two disciplines As he elaborates on this theme he explores the centrality of the Resurrection in both theology and preaching the relation of the law and the gospel and how preaching calls upon theology to recover its oral aural foundation For Lischer the act of preaching is an exercise of the preacher s imagination The real work of imagination is not inserting clever stories or esthetically pleasing images into the argument of the sermon It is knowing how to read texts in such a way that they will be allowed to function according to their original power and intent

Homiletical Handbook Donald L. Hamilton,1992-10-01 Homiletical Handbook is a primer for those who are called to preach It is intentionally simple in its explanation of the homiletical task and straightforward in getting to the point It is solid in its theology and biblical in its approach The Homiletic Review ,1887

Homiletics Dr. Danette M. Vercher,2017-12-04 The greatest principle ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ should learn the readiness to serve in a special position within the church without wielding authority and perform the inspired service correspondent to their office Additionally they endeavor to introduce exposition homiletics and theology as tools for the life of the minister to preach Gods Word with power boldness and conviction to change lives and as called messengers of God they should be enabled to learn deliver and master the art of preaching and teaching
