Preacher Can You Hear Us Listening:

Preacher, Can You Hear Us Listening? Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-02-03 Everyone knows that pulpits are for preaching and pews are for listening to sermons This obvious scenario however masks an essential prerequisite for faithful fruitful preaching namely that preachers listen to God and to their people before they speak Roger Van Harn here puts forth pointed questions that sermon listeners really ask of preachers Why should we listen to sermons Doesevery sermon need a Bible text How can a sermon be the word of God Do you preach for the church or the world Van Harn grapples withand discusses such questions giving preachers fresh insights into the needs and desires of congregations Preacher Can You Hear Us Listening will foster an ongoing dialogue between pulpit and pew and sharpen listening skills in both directions Preaching without Borders Ryan Roach, 2022-09-08 Though the United States has been a relatively diverse nation Americans have historically lived close to those who are ethnically and culturally like them The unfortunate effects of slavery Jim Crow segregation housing discrimination prejudice and bigotry have been key reasons for demographic divisions While divisions remain communities that were once monoethnic are experiencing changes that are enriching The challenge for these communities is to work to break down barriers that prevent lasting authentic relationships resulting in spiritual growth Churches in these communities are at a crossroads and face a choice do they keep doing what is comfortable despite the changes in their neighborhoods or do they work to resemble their neighbors Preaching Without Borders addresses the challenges preachers face when they attempt to be faithful to the text while contextualizing it so that people of every nation tribe and tongue can be transformed A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God Jesus might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aguinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation Preaching that Matters Lori J. Carrell, 2013-04-11 Listeners do love their pastors and they agree with the sermon content they hear Lori Carrell once explained to a group of pastors but most sermons don t ask for change and most listeners don t experience spiritual growth as a result of the sermon A participant responded Let's get practical I want my preaching to make a difference What changes are worth making and how do I make them In Preaching that Matters Lori Carrell shares answers to that question drawing on the experiences of thousands of people preachers and their listeners whose effort she has studied over many years In each chapter of this book she offers research revelations about high impact preaching that will encourage and challenge readers to continue to grow as preachers She then links these principles with Reflective Practice Challenges RPCs exercises that honor the rich experiences of pastors while opening opportunities for self analysis spiritual introspection conversation with a trusted other or implementation of research based preaching recommendations. The activities have been used by hundreds of other pastors and each RPC has been carefully selected for its demonstrated contribution to the process of transforming sermon communication A selection of the RPCs are available as a downloadable file E mail resourcematerial rowman com for more information As a communication expert Carrell approaches preaching from a sermon communication paradigm She begins with the task of identifying the spiritually transformative purpose of the sermon and then explores exegeting organizing deepening and delivering the sermon as well as listening to the listeners and planning for continued transformation Her own goal is simple to inspire and equip clergy to make changes that will enhance the transformative power of their preaching To connect with others reading Preaching That Matters and to find an online accountability partner join the book s Google communities Alive to the Word Stephen I. Wright, 2013-01-25 In Alive to the Word Stephen Wright offers a constructive introduction to preaching as an existing and varied practice throughout the church on which it is important to continue to reflect theologically so that it is executed with developing spirituality understanding and skill Alive to the Word includes discussion of the full range of key components in the understanding and practice of preaching from its basic theological rationale right through to the dynamics of live communication and its aftermath The books begins by reflecting on the nature and the context of preaching not least in a communications culture and moves on to setting a constructive agenda for the development of preaching as a core practice of the Christian church for the preacher the Hear Her Voice Christine Redwood, 2024-08-01 How does our gender impact our congregation and the wider church preaching Can women express anger in a sermon Why use a first person narrative sermon structure After preaching for several years Christine Redwood realized both her preaching role models and her theology had come predominantly from men so she spent the next six years researching feminist scholars and their readings of stories from the book of Judges In this accessible book she shares what she has learnt including sample sermons and exercises for preachers wanting to grow in their craft This is essential reading for preachers wanting to amplify marginal voices When God Speaks through You Craig A. Satterlee, 2007-12-10 Holy and active listening means listening openly and attentively to one another with the expectation that God will speak in and through the conversation In When God Speaks through You homiletics professor Craig Satterlee helps preachers and their congregations learn to listen to one another with such grace Satterlee demonstrates how individuals and groups can identify clarify and articulate their convictions about the Christian faith and share them in a nonthreatening manner He also helps readers discover their expectations of and reactions to preaching itself The preacher will come to better know what people listen for and parishioners will better understand what the preacher hopes to accomplish in the sermon Creating discussion groups about preaching frequently results in spiritual growth renewal deeper appreciation for difference new perspective and motivation for the preacher and the discussion group members and through them the congregation These conversations can prepare congregations for broader conversation about how people s faith convictions shape both their lives and the congregation s worship life together and mission Commentary: Theological Exegesis for Sunday's Texts, The First Readings: Roger E. Arthur M. Scott, 2018-10-22 The essays in this book began simply as tools I incorporated to enhance my understanding of A Course in Miracles and how it blends with the literature I have read and classes and seminars I have taken Our friends and teachers Unity minister Patty and her husband Jack Morales introduced my wife Pati and I to A Course in Miracles fifteen or so years after we had begun our spiritual journey s Each of us are in pursuit of our own respective spiritual paths in our own individual ways as part of a life long search for our purpose in life trying to discover who we truly are not the persona we ve made up It just takes some of us longer to realize it We began with a small core group of people committed to their spiritual paths and it has grown steadily since As the group expanded in numbers so did the questions and people began to look to my wife and I for clarification I realized then that for myself I needed to put more effort into my understanding of A Course in Miracles and how it coincided with what I had studied previously beginning with my lineage The Science of Mind I began with notes for comparison which grew into paragraphs and eventually ended up as the essays in this book They the essays became for me a bridge between A Course in Miracles The Science of Mind the Gnostic Gospels and various other religions and teachings I am a perennial student and will probably be as long as I continue to breathe My search for understanding for clarification may not be insatiable but I cannot remember a time when I wasn t studying something so when my wife introduced me to metaphysics I knew that this was what I would make the topic of all my studying in the future These essays are the essence of the information I ve extracted from this process My purpose with these essays is not to provide you with what I think to be the only or right answers to any questions but as an explanation understanding or clarification that resonates for me and hopefully for you We are all unique in our individual perceptions so my perception of some subjects may not mirror yours but if one or some of my essays bring a light of understanding or help to you or assist you in seeing an old truth in a new way then we are both blessed It is my belief that all gifts are meant to be shared be it the gift our friendships our love or our knowledge because if we keep them to ourselves they are of no value to anyone If these essays provide for you a better understanding or just simplify your path in any manner please share them because as St Francis said in his beautiful prayer It is in the giving that we receive Photography by my good friend Doug Howard For Preachers and Other Human Beings B. E. White, Jr., 2016-12-27 The columns in this book are reprinted from the Biblical Recorder the North Carolina Baptist state paper Editor R G Puckett saw a reason for them to be published because of the urgent need to strengthen pastors and churches in their relationship to each other He wrote that the articles are projected more for the laypersons than for the minister I think that they will be helpful in understanding the role relationship and rigors of the minister's life Some of them will be informational Others will be almost devotional And some many even be downright funny We all need to remember that ministers are people too
