A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards JR.,2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church s ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 contains Edwards s magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching s development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century s discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time Origen Chrysostom Augustine Bernard Aquinas Luther Calvin Wesley Edwards Rauschenbusch Barth all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew Volume 2 available separately as 9781501833786 contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church s twenty centuries The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1 s narrative history Ecumenical in scope fair minded in presentation appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop deliver and listen to a sermon A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching s role in living out the gospel This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years says Ann K Riggs who staffs the NCC s Faith and Order Commission Author Edwards former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary is co moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches we all participate in this field says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65 Winter 2004 2005 published by the National Council of Churches

NEW TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda,2024-05-16 Here John advises us that loving one another is not an option or a suggestion it is a commandment John doesn t want any believer to become like Adam and Eve s firstborn Cain That happened because Cain was under the influence of Satan This is therefore a warning not to mess with the world So what if they hate us We are bound for everlasting life in the presence of God That s why death has no power over us And that s why if our thoughts do not tell us that we are guilty we will not be afraid to come to God We can pray to God and we can ask Him to help us He will give us what we ask Him for That is because we obey His commands and we do the things that please Him Furthermore we should all love each other because God makes us able to love other people Everyone who loves other people confirms our claim to be a child of God If anyone says clearly that Jesus is the Son of God God lives in that person And that person lives together with God We know the kind of love that God has for us That s why if we love God we will not be afraid of Him So how do we know that we love God s children We know it when we love God and we do what He tells us to do

Preaching to a Post-Everything World Zack Eswine,2008-04-01 Zack Eswine starts this unique pastoral resource with a captivating question Could I now reach who I once was Challenging the idea that today s preachers must do away with biblical or expository preaching if they are to reach non Christian people Eswine offers a way of preaching that embraces biblical exposition in missional terms Recognizing all of the different cultural situations in which the gospel must be preached he gives preachers practical advice on preaching in a global context while remaining faithful to the Bible Pastors seminarians and church and ministry leaders who speak in various contexts will welcome this fresh thoughtful examination of bringing the Word to today s multi everything post everything world

A Legacy of Preaching: Two-Volume Set---Apostles to the Present Day Zondervan,2018-12-11 A Legacy of Preaching Two Volume Set Apostles to the Present Day explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history allowing these preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives theologies and methods of preaching Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the
